 the needs of the Town not only for fallout but for fire, flood or disruption of services, and to bring the report to the first meeting in December with recommendations on a permanent committee. Mr. Heenan said this suggestion had not been prompted by hysteria, but rather to explore the advisability of what would be done in any type of emergency. The motion was duly passed to have Mr. Heenan set up a temporary committee reporting back to Council.
