ST. MARTIN'S SCHOOL HOLDS OPEN HOUSE

On November 27th St. Martin's School held Open House for all school parents and interested persons. Approximately one hundred and fifty people were in attendance to confer with the teachers, to inspect children's work and exercises, and to visit the classrooms. Of particular interest were the two new classrooms of the new annex which were occupied by classes in early October.

Many items of interest were presented. These included a film strip and a commentary entitled "Report Card to Parents", a distribution of booklets "Nine to Twelve" and an informative letter to parents about their part in helping older students in a school project "A Chat About Studying". The girls of the Senior Grades served tea at the conclusion of the evening's events.

C.W.L. NEWS

Due to the Forty Hour Devotion the regular meeting and annual Christmas party of the Catholic Women's League will be held one week later on Sunday evening, December 17th.

The St. Martin's Church will hold a Forty Hour's Devotion starting on Sunday, December 19th through to December 12th. Very Reverend J. Coghlan, C. S.S.R., will be preaching the Forty Hours.

This devotion, during which the Blessed Sacrament is publicly exposed for the veneration of the Faithful for Forty Hours is in memory of the Forty Hours during which the Body of The Saviour remained in the Sepulchre.

BAKE SALE

A Christmas Bake Sale will be held this Saturday, December 9 from 2 - 5 P.M. by the Catholic Women's League in St. Martin's Church Hall. A good variety of Christmas baking will be available as well as the regular items of bread, buns, rolls and candy.

Brian Paulsen celebrated his fifth birthday on Tuesday, November 21 with a party luncheon at noon. A few games were played before his guests returned to home or school with their party favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lindquist had Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lindquist of Kenora visiting them for the past two weeks. Little Lori Lindquist returned to Kenora with her grandparents on Saturday for a visit.

A party was held on Friday afternoon to celebrate the sixth birthday of Valerie Larson. Sixteen boys and girls played before enjoying the party fare and returned home with their favours.
