SCHREIBER HOMES GAILY DECORATED

More Schreiber homes than ever before are displaying Christmas decorations, to enhance the appearance of the town and in keeping with the spirit of the festive season. Neighbours and friends wended their ways to Christmas Church Services and to make Yuletide calls.

TEEN TOWN PLAN CARNIVAL

Tentative plans for a Carnival in early February were made by the Teen Town group at their meeting last Wednesday night.

The ambitious plans include a parade (weather permitting), children's races (up to the age of ten), accuracy shots on goal by the Mice-on-Ice coterie, a game between minor hockey teams + parade of Snow Queens - a Way-Out Fashion Show - figure skating numbers and zany clown to amuse the small fry.

In the evening the final judging for the Snow Queen will take place at a dance in the town hall.

Carol Holmes, nurse in training at St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur is spending the holidays with her family, Mr. & Mrs. C. Holmes.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS CONCERT

Parents and friends were recently entertained in the High School Auditorium as individual classes of the Terrace Bay Community Church Sunday School appeared. The programme was under the direction of Mr. W. Kurylo, Sunday School Superintendent and his staff of teachers.

First on the programme the Junior Choir sang two selections under the direction of their conductor Mrs. J.R. Anderson. The littlest, taught by Mesdames J. Brooks, M. Pluta, M. Paget, M. Deboice and H. Roberts, sang 'Away in a Manger'. They had previously presented their own programme and enacted the Nativity Scene at their Sunday, December 10th service.

"Christmas in Reverse", a little play, was presented by Grade two girls from the class trained by Mrs. B. Lohr and Mrs. W. Anderson. A lovely group of Christmas Carols were sung by the Grades two and three boys and Grade three girls who are taught by Wendy Duncan, Maureen Hall, Janis Coe, Betsy Ferrier, Bob Hopper and Roddy Thompson.

The story of "A Good Samaritan" was read by Mrs. A. McKechnie as her Grade four boys enacted the part. Grade four girls were directed in singing Christmas Carols by teachers Bonnie Thomas and (Cont'd Page 9)
