

COMMUNITY CHURCH (From Page 8)
Ruth Thorsteinson. Many of the Christmas Legends were explained by the Grade five boys from Mrs. M. Middaugh's class.

Following intermission Grade six girls presented the play "Let There Be Light" directed by Miss Julie Stachiw. A surprise ending to "The Snow Man" was performed by the Grade five girls trained by Mrs. V. Hopper and Mrs. J. Knight. "Christmas at Home" was sung and accompanied by members of Mrs. S. Lundberg's Grade seven girls.

Mr. J. Dejonghe and Mr. F. Gould's grade six boys answered questions in class to present "Santa Claus". "Is it a Fake" was the theme of the presentation of Mr. D. Lohr's grade seven boys, and the Junior Girls under Mrs. R. Anderson sang "The Wonderful Saviour of Men".

A Christmas Orchestral by Senior Boys of Mr. W. Colborne's class added instrumental variety to the programme.

The Senior Girls who had been directed by Mrs. R. Hofland performed to the reading of the colorful and old favourite "The Night Before Christmas".

At the close of the concert, Judy Graham presented Mrs. J.R. Anderson with a gift, to convey the gratitude of the Junior Choir for her devoted leadership.

his appreciation for the manner in which Council proceedings had been reported in the press during his term of office for the past four and a half years. He considered it fair, factual and altogether in the interests of the community.

Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Mason are Mrs. Mason's mother, Mrs. A.A. Niles of St. John, New Brunswick, and their daughter Beverley, a nurse-in-training at St. John General Hospital, St. John, New Brunswick.

Everybody likes a man who knows when and how to say thanks.
