

KEEP THAT NEW YEAR
GLAMOUR WITH OUR HELP ..

Debbie Lynn

SIMCOE PLAZA — TERRACE BAY
PHONE 3631

HELP TO WARD OFF
COLDS & WINTER
AILMENTS BY TAKING VITAMINS REGULARLY.

We carry a complete line for children and adults. Pick up a supply NOW!

HERE & THERE IN SCHREIBER

Spending New years with friends in Schreiber were Liz Moore, Althea Holynaty, Lucille Townsend, all of St. Joseph's School of Nursing, Port Arthur.

Al Pearson, Fort William, spent a few days in town visiting former acquaintances, the guest of Pat Doran.

Mr. & Mrs. J.G. Scott spent Christmas in Winnipeg, the guests of Mrs. Scott's Mother, Mrs. Laird.

Corporal and Mrs. F. Richardson spent Christmas in Kenora with their daughter and family.

Joyce Graham of Port Arthur spent New Year's in Schreiber, the guest of Sharon Gellert.

Cynthia Bond, Port Arthur, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. E.O'Connor for the New Year Holiday.

Mr. & Mrs. F.C. Macadam left Saturday to spend New Year's with their son Gordon and family in Winnipeg, Man.

Donna Slater, Port Arthur, spent the holiday with her parents, Mr. & Mrs. D.A. Slater and had as her guest her fiancée Bernie Watts of Port Arthur.

Gordon Palmer spent Christmas with relatives in Atikokan.

Roy Glad of Calgary spent the Christmas holiday with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. W. Glad and other members of his family.

Marlene Jarva is spending a short visit with her grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. J. Danylevich and sister Sharon before returning to Fort William

Mr. & Mrs. J. Corbett spent New Year's Day with Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Soucey and family in Fort William.

Mr. & Mrs. G. Johnson and family of Fort William spent Christmas with Mrs. Johnson's brother and family, Mr. & Mrs. Jack Stokes.

Mr. Gunther from Toronto has arrived to be on the Staff of the Schreiber High School as Latin Teacher.

Mr. & Mrs. Dale Willoughby and family with Mr. & Mrs. Ernie Willoughby and family of Ft. William, together with sons Glenn of Regina and Fred of Caronport, Sask. were home with their parents, the Ernie Willoughby, Srs.

Tony and Giovanni Speziale who attend schools in Fort William spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. & Mrs. G. Speziale.

SCHREIBER COUPLE CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Fifty years ago in St. John's Anglican Church, Schreiber, with Rev. John Ropey officiating, Louise Riley became the bride of Jack Corbett. On Wednesday, December 27th, 150 friends and relatives called to celebrate the occasion of their 50th Anniversary.

Mr. & Mrs. Corbett were at home to their many friends from three to five P.M. when their full bridal party were on hand to receive with them. Mrs. W. Wardle of Port Arthur was the bridesmaid - Mr. George Riley (brother) from Mount Forrest, the groomsman and Mrs. Victoria Winters, Schreiber (sister) and Mrs. Eva Bailey, Fort William, (groom's sister) were flower girls.

Mrs. F.C. Macadam presented a flourishing money tree from their many friends, assisted by Mrs. J.V. Moore and Mrs. Hugh Stewart.

Pouring tea in the afternoon were Mrs. G. Riley, Mrs. W. Wardle, Mrs. Ed. Soucey and Mrs. J. Hayes. Serving were Mrs. T. Whitton and Mrs. W. Miller (daughters). Mrs. Ted Wilson who served at the wedding reception 50 years ago was tea room hostess.

A dinner was served to the honoured guests in the Anglican Church Hall at 6 P.M. with Mrs. Freda Duggan a niece as dining room hostess and serving were Mrs. Reg. Bailey, assisted by Mrs. Ida Krause and Mrs. George Riley Jrs, also nieces.

In the evening their home was again open to their friends when tea pourers were Mrs. V. Winters, Mrs. E. Bailey, Mrs. K. Whitton and Mrs. W. Miller. Serving were the Misses Ora Mae Harness, Sylvia Harness, Dorothy Slater, Sally Stewart and Mesdames E. Nesbitt and D. Whitton, granddaughter. A beautiful three-tier wedding cake nestled in tulle rested on a side table flanked by a full blooming rose sprayed gold.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth centered with gold mums offset by golden hued candles and holders. The guest book was circulated by Doreen Soucey. (Cont'd Page 8)

DONALD G. BENO
NOTARY PUBLIC
and INSURANCE AGENT representing

DOMINION LIFE INSURANCE CO.
SCHREIBER TOWN HALL - PH. 195