

Mrs. John Ferrier.

Mrs. Walter Anderson, Liason member for the Children's Aid Society in Schreiber advised the group the Society needed knitted layette articles and will supply the wool. The members readily agreed to work on these items. It was noted Christmas cards are required for work by various organizations. Members were requested to bring in cards to the next meeting when a decision would be made concerning them. The Afternoon Group will be in charge of the World Day of Prayer Service to be held on Friday, March 9th.

Mrs. G. Maitland offered to conduct the Worship Service at the meeting in February. Mrs. R. Wills and Mrs. L. Crandlemire will be in charge of the lunch. Mrs. M. McCausland is taking charge of the Maple Syrup project again this year. Mrs. Williams will be the representative to the Ladies Auxiliary executive.

Mrs. L. McBride gave a report on the Christmas Party, thanking all the ladies, on behalf of herself and Mrs. C. MacDonald as Convenors, for the success of the Party. Mrs. Helmink in turn, thanked the Convenors and their groups for all their work towards this event which had been greatly enjoyed. The Spiritual Committee will be canvassing Parish members for renewal subscriptions and new subscriptions to the Canadian Registrar.

Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher read an article from "The Christian Family Apostolate". The article Father chose was "Ingredients of the Ideal Home" by Most Rev. Phillip F. Pocock,

D.D. A few paragraphs from the article are:
"See the beauty of the ideal Christian family. Unselfish love has drawn together the heart of a boy and girl, and now before God's altar they have given themselves unto each other until death. God smiles, and taking that hand of mutual surrender, seals it with a sacramental power. So beautiful this union becomes that it reminds God of the Union of Christ and His Church. This living union will be pregnant with children and grace."

"This boy will grow into a Father -- strong reliant, provident. He will love his wife as he loves himself, even as Christ loves the Church. With understanding, kindness and firmness he will preside over the family with

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE MEETS

Mrs. F. Helmink opened the Catholic Women's League general meeting on January 14, with League prayers. A word of welcome was extended to all ladies present. The Secretary Mrs. R. Lindberg read the minutes and all correspondence received. Mrs. J. Caccamo gave her financial statement. All other convenors were then asked for their reports.
