CANADIAN LEGION

The Royal Canadian Legion, Br. 109 held its inaugural joint installation of officers with its ladies auxiliary on January 19 in the town hall. F. Ginn, past zone commander, was installing officer and N. Ross M.C. for the evening.

The color guards were F. MacDonald, acting sgt. at arms, G. Willoughby and J. Sawyer. Officers installed were: C. Dimmery, sgt. at arms, P. Moon, warden; L. Hiller and J. McCuaig, secretaries; A. Pearson and P. Small, treasurers; L.V. Bourke, Branch service officer; G. Cataford, Chaplain;

Executive committees; T. Bolan, N. Ross, L. Small, L.V. Bourke, R. Campbell, J. Sawyer, J. St. Pierre, "Butch" Moore, G. Cataford, B. Paradis, E. Paradis, Vi. Rigelsford, L. McColeman, E. Lidkea, I. Lidkea, and E. Ross. N. Ross, J. Winters, B. McCuaig, R. Hiller, vice presidents; F. McKenna and E. Johnson, presidents;

Mr. McKenna thanked the members for his re-election saying he was aware of both the honor and the responsibility the position carried. Mrs. Johnson, saying this was a new experience for her, asked for the confidence and assistance of both the auxiliary and the Legion since without harmony and co-operation little would be accomplished.

Mr. Ginn spoke with deep feeling of the ten years of comradeship he had enjoyed with the Schreiber Branch which he is now leaving to join the new unit in Terrace Bay where his home is.

A corsage was presented to the new auxiliary president by the Legion president.

Among the guests who spoke briefly were H. Kerr, president of Br. 183, Marathon, E. Jordan, president of the Marathon Br. Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. E. Hamre, of Kakabeka, district representative, Ladies Auxiliaries, W. Bailie, president of Terrace Bay Legion, Br. 223 and Councillor Inez McCuaig, for the Municipality.

Regrets at being unable to attend were sent by J. Hawke, president White River, Br. 169 auxiliary and from F. Somerton also of White River.

A vote of thanks was passed to Peggy Small who had convened the wonderful buffet dinner which preceded the installation rites.

Over 100 attended the occasion, out of town guests including Mr. & Mrs. F. Ginn, Mr. & Mrs. M. Chepelsky, Mr. & Mrs. J. Corrigan, Mr. & Mrs. C. MacDonald, Mr. & Mrs. F. Gould, and B. Baillie of Terrace Bay. Mr. & Mrs. J. Jordan and H. Kerr, of Marathon, and Mrs. E. Hamre of Kakabeka.

R. Campbell, chairman of the building committee spoke at length on plans for the new branch, saying it is hoped to provide a kitchen large and well enough equipped to allow for catering, a large auditorium and eventually, bowling lanes. Although the sum already deposited in the building fund is gratifying it is far from the amount which will be required, said Mr. Campbell, and continued to outline some fund-raising projects under consideration.

The evening ended with a cabaret dance, a special honoring the Gould's wedding anniversary, and with a spot dance won by Mr. & Mrs. A. McColeman.
