C.W.L. HOLDS MEETING

Two Projects, a Social on February 28th and a St. Patrick's Day Dinner, were planned at the regular meeting of the Catholic Women's League.

Mrs. Harry Shack presided with regular reports presented as follows: Mrs. M. Perrault, Spiritual, Mrs. R.B. Spadoni, Education and Immigration; Mrs. Spadoni urged members to take part in hosting of Study Conference delegated. Mrs. A. Moorey, Social, described meeting with a General Welfare Committee of the town.

Mrs. B. Paradis, reported Membership and Mrs. M. McGrath on Radio, T.V. and Films.

Mrs. Bill Cocks, Secretary, read an article on the importance of reading, which will benefit not only the individual but one's family, with wider ranges of thoughts and topics.

Resolutions adopted at the National Convention were read and Mrs. R. Sisson contributed another article entitled, "How To Live With Yourself".

Names drawn for the attendance prize were Mrs. S. Kusik, Mrs. P.J. LeBlanc and Mrs. N. Bottomley.

Following the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. W. Mullins' committee.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE HONOR NEW YEAR BABY

Thomas Edward Pitkanen was King for Day in Schreiber on Feb. 13 when, at the Women's Institute meeting, he was presented with an engraved silver cup of the municipality for being Schreiber's first baby of 1962, and with gifts from business firms in town and personal gifts from W.I. Members, by Mrs. Nelson Smith and Mrs. Russell Macadam.

Mrs. N. Smith presided for the business meeting welcoming Mrs. W.R. Burroughs and her mother, Mrs. Edith Drummond, of Sherbrooke, Que, as guests.

Mrs. W. Thrower read the minutes and lengthy correspondence which included a thank-you note from Ansel Haapa, appreciation from the Ontario Hospital at Smith Falls for gifts sent to patient; information on the training school in meat cutting being held in Port Arthur, with suggestion that delegates plan to attend Summary Day.

Notice of the W.I. 65th anniversary celebration in Toronto; notice of the conference for Branch officers only, for 61-62 being held in Guelph on May 9th and 10th; Notice from the Bank of Montreal and a circular on courses for Fall training;

Mrs. W. Miller accepted the position of Card Secretary, replacing the late Mrs. W.J. Scott.

It was agreed that each member would give one dollar for talent money at the March meeting. Mrs. Smith offered a list of foreign missions which would be glad to receive discarded Christmas or other attractive cards.

Mesdames W. Miller, Russell Macadam, D.A. Slater and W. Thrower were named hostesses for the March meeting when penny draws will be arranged.

PROJECTS PLANNED BY UNITED CHURCH GROUP

Their annual Smorgasbord was planned by the United Church unit at their Regular Meeting on February 7th with Mrs. T.P. Whent presiding. Final plans were made for the Valentine Tea and for a Shamrock Tea in March.
