The wedding breakfast was given in the town hall.

Mr. & Mrs. Favuzzi are spending their honeymoon in the States, the bride travelling in a brown ensemble with corsage of yellow roses. They will make their home in Schreiber.

Many relatives and friends from the Lakehead attended the wedding, among them the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Agostino, of Port Arthur.

O'BRIEN, McDONALD NUPTIALS

At 11.45 AM Saturday, March 3rd. Rev. J.M. Cano of Schreiber joined in holy wedlock, Carol O'Brien, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Leonard O'Brien and D'Arcy McDonald, of Manitouwadge.

The wedding took place in St. Martin's Church, Terrace Bay and attendants were Dr. and Mrs. B.A. McDonald.

The bride, a dainty figure in imported bridal-ivory brocade carried a white prayer book topped with tiny roses and lily of the valley and a crystal tiara held a shoulder length veil in place.

The matron of honour, Mrs. B. McDonald was gowned in an emerald green lace sheath, with matching hat and carried a cascade of gardenias.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Pat Mulligan of Schreiber and Miss Colleen Murphy of Terrace Bay was soloist.

The bride's mother wore a two piece ensemble of beige chiffon over floral silk, a gold hat and brown accessories and had a corsage of white feathered carnations.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Frank McDonald of Markstay, Ontario, was gowned in moonmist grey, with coral hat and accessories and wore a matching carnation corsage.

A wedding breakfast for the immediate family was held in Schreiber Hotel, followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents.

Out of town guests were Mr. & Mrs. Donald McDonald of Sudbury, Mr. & Mrs. Bill McDonald, Mrs. Larry McDonald and Mrs. Frank McDonald, all of Markstay.

Embarking on a U.S. honeymoon, the bride wore a beige suit and fur jacket adorned with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. The young couple plan to make their present home in Schreiber.

TERESA FIGLIOMENI WEDS ANDREA FAVUZZI

Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber was the setting for the marriage, on March third, of Teresa Figliomeni, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Dominic Figliomeni, and Andrea Favuzzi, all of Schreiber.

Father J.M. Cano officiated.

Miss Carole Lalonde was the organist and Giovanni Cebrario the soloist.

The ushers were C. Joseph Figliomeni and Joseph Agostino cousins of the bride.

C. Gino Figliomeni was the best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in Chantilly lace, and a crown of pearls and crystal held her veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of better times red roses with lily of the valley knotted in the streamers.

The five attendants were-Miss Angelina Figliomeni, her sister, as maid of honor, Miss Patricia Huminicki and Miss Maria Macchi, as bridesmaids, Rita Figliomeni, her sister, and Wendy Slongo, a cousin, as flower girls. Their ensembles were in orchid - their whimsy veils held by tiny crowns and their slippers and gloves in matching hue.

The maid of honor carried white shasta mums backed with lacelon and white satin streamers. The bridesmaids nosegays were white pompoms spiced with lily of the valley and backed with lacelon.

The flower girls frocks were of crystallette, and their headdress was a matching fabric rose secured with bonnet ties and they carried baskets of daisy shasta mums, with orchid bows on the handles.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a pale green brocade, hat and accessories in deeper green and corsage of feathered pink carnations. The groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph De Fuscola, who assisted at the reception in the town hall, chose a beige lace, with matching hat and accessories and her corsage also of pink carnations.
