

HERE & THERE IN SCHREIBER

We wish, through the medium of "The News" to clarify a misunderstanding by many Schreiber residents pertaining to Minor Hockey weekend, Feb. 24 and 25. Some of the boys in minor hockey paid admission to rink - consequently some criticism was directed at the rink committee. Admission prices were set by Schreiber Minor Hockey Association. The rink was placed at the disposal of Minor Hockey for these two days at no cost except for expenses of ticket staff.

O.R.T. ANNUAL BONSPIEL HELD

In the annual bonspiel held Thursday, March 8th, Paul Pelto defeated last year's cup holder Coke Campbell by 7 to 6. Pelto's rink was composed of Johnny Slobodian, Frank McKenna, Harry Harper and members of the Campbell Rink were Bob Turner, Alex Krystia, and Larry Tremblay. Others curling were Bill Stefurak, Jack Whent, Aime Chartier and Bill Niemi. The Chapleau entry was made up of Ivan Beauparlent Tom McLeod, Scott Welsh and Allan Punstel.

Grateful appreciation of the O.R.T. is extended to the Terrace Bay Curling Club for the use of their ice, Doran's Brewery, Paulin's Biscuit Co. and Carling's Breweries.

Brooms were stacked on several occasions and lunch was served in Terrace Bay. Prizes were presented during a dinner held in the Schreiber Hotel.

SHROVE SUPPER AT ST. JOHN'S

The Shrove Tuesday supper was arranged in the town hall this year by the W.A. of St. John's Anglican Church, with Mrs. Cyril Sparkes convening. The servitors were Mesdames F.V. MINOR HOCKEY NEWS

On Monday night the White River Pee-wee Allstars defeated the Terrace Bay Pee-wee Allstars, 2-0 to win the North Shore Pee-wee championship. Terrace Bay defeated White River on Saturday 1-0 in a game played at Marathon, due to no ice at White River. This was a home and home total goals to count series. White River won the round 2-1.

With the Minor Hockey season rapidly coming to a close, I would at this time like to thank the rest of the executive and the coaches, referees and the chairmen of each division for their help and co-operation during the season. A special thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary for their co-operation, to Ken Ward and Ernie Schock, for their kind advice. All this made my job a pleasant one.

To all of you my sincere thanks.

Ernie Kettle
Pres. T.B.M.H.A.

On Saturday and Sunday the 17 and 18th, the Minor Hockey playdowns will be held in the Fort William Gardens. Schreiber Midgets with four pick-ups from the Terrace Day squad should be a strong contender for the midget honours. Also Schreiber Juveniles who have a strong team should be in contention for the Juvenile honours. (Con't on Page 8)
