

ASK FOR PETER AT THE

THREE PIECE BEDROOM SUITES

by
A.P. & KROEHLER -

BOOKCASE BED - CHIFFONIER - DOUBLE DRESSER -

$159. and up

FURNITURE

ANNEX

Just arrived!

CHROME
DINETTE SUITES

dazzling design and colour

$59.50 up

TWO PIECE
CHESTERFIELD SUITES

from $199.50
to $299.50

SUPERB CONSTRUCTION *
LUXURY FABRICS *

by KROEHLER &
CONFORT

4 only

Connor Vacuum cleaners = 1 H.P. Motor (New Models) ONLY $49.95

THREE MODELS OF THE 1962 INGLIS AUTOMATIC WASHERS & DRYERS ON HAND. GOOD TRADE-INS ALLOWED.

PHONE 12W

SCHREIBER, ONT.

SPADONI BROS.

OPEN FRIDAY

EVENINGS

TILL 9 P.M.

ICE FROLICS (Continued from Page 2)

the revue was sanctioned by the Canadian Figure Skating Association.

Master of Ceremonies Mr. A. Pattison invited the audience to join him in a Space Capsule to blast off first to sunny Mexico, where the Senior skaters Jane Heenan, Marcia Hamilton, Marie Delaronde, Irene Strart, Arlene Coates and Darlene Larson, started off the program with the lively Mexican Hat Twist.

New York was the second port of call with a visit to Madison Square Gardens to see a three ring circus. Majorette Brook Rapke led the parade with Bandsmen Brannon Blom, Gloria Dye, Pat Kelty, Judy Ollen-Bittle, Gail Simmer, Cathy West, Judy Graham, Judy Falzetta, Heather Boyd, Joan Persson, Jackie Turner and Caryle Malcolm, to be followed by bareback riders Shirley Phillips and Betty Lou Cavanaugh in a duet.

The Poodles, Marlyn MacDonald, Joanne Stevens, Alice Stuart, Judy Kurylo, Valerie Larson, Beverley Legault and Ann Boudreau appeared, before ballerina Jane Boudreau.

Clowns Lloyd Phillips, Chris Cavanaugh, Michael Mallais, Clifford Wood and Roy Williams did some fancy tumbling to keep the audience on the edge of their seats. More animals were brought into the ring by trainer Rosemary Pattison and Strongman Victor Demecha. Performing were Cathy Graham, Josephine Rousseau, Susan Boudreau, Lois Galvin, Darlene Josus and Claudette Stevens.

In Roman chariot fashion the pony ballet pranced with skaters Diane Billings, Norma Chesley, Christine Olsen, Brook Rapke, Polly Tymko, Susan Graham, Linda Woodruff, Colleen Kenney, Jane West, Pat Dodge, Jane Persson, Valerie Turner, Laura Hartman, Wendy Evans-Smith, Delcienne Malcolm and Jamie Cumming. Queen of the Circus was Molly Harris.

Irene Stuart inspired them to linger longer in New York as she appeared as the Manhattan Miss. Hawaii was the next stop producing the lovelies, or the equivalent, Barry Stevens, Ray Hansen, Carl Kolody and Gordon Calder.

Pamela Cumming and Terry Delaronde introduced the Theme Song, "Around the World in Eighty Days".

Turning to England, the clever Jane Hennan skated to the beautiful "Cornish Rhapsody", then across the border to Scotland with Highland dancers Marcia Jeanneret, Cheryl Cuncan, Pamela Cumming, Betty Lou Cavanaugh, Molly McCausland, Pat Downey, Shirley Phillips and Delcienne Malcolm and their featured Lassie duet Molly Harris and Marcia Hamilton.

Intermission returned the audience to sidewalk cafe in Gay Paree where the patrons, Arlene Coates, Darlene Larson, Jane Heenan, Wendy Duncan, M. Delaronde, I. Stuart, M. Harris and E. Hayes waltzed before their cute French maids the sisters Pamela and Jamie Cumming. Mademoiselle De Paris Marcia Hamilton skated to 'Bon Voyage to Paree.'

Away again to wonderful Copenhagen visited by Lois Ann Fraser, Sherie McCaskie, Cathy J. Cotton and Linda Hayes, enroute to the mysterious Cashah with Darlene Larson and Marie Delaronde; on to the land of old Heidelberg and Miss Germany Arlene Coates.

Senoritas and Matadors S. Phillips, C. Duncan, P. Cumming, D. Malcolm, L. Fraser, S. McCaskie, M. Jeanneret, P. Dodge, C. Cotton, M. McCausland, P. Downey and B. Cavanaugh, brought in the Spanish Fiesta. Features were: the Hayes sisters Elizabeth and Linda, and talented Jane Heenan.

A break to comedy once more with "Those girls are back again", G. Calder, C. Kolody, B. Stevens and R. Hansen cleaning up the joint.

A fine young Man about town was T. Delaronde and the journey "Around the World" drew to a close with a stop in Hungary introducing gypsy sweetheart E. Hayes and featuring six of the Senior Skaters in the fast moving Hungarian Rhapsody.

The entire cast of seniors appeared once more in their finale and Saturday evening Master T. Delaronde, on behalf of the Club, presented Club Professional, Mrs. A. Pattison with a gift of appreciation.

Behind the scenes for this very polished performance were many adults who contributed with scenery, costumes, ice and dressing rooms, but to take special bow is the hardworking executive with Pres. J. Cumming, Vice-Pres. Mrs. P. Staurt, (Continued on Page 10)