TERRACE BAY LADIES BONSPIEL

The Nesco Trophy was awarded to Skip Ida Romaniuk and her Terrace Bay rink Sunday afternoon at the close of the Terrace Bay Ladies 8th Annual Bonspiel. The Nesco Trophy from Northern Engineering and Supply Co. is presented annually to First Event winners, in the Bonspiel with miniatures remaining with the rink personnel Dene Clancy. third, Evelyn Shivas second, and Pat Romaniuk lead. This rink also took home a set of TV tables each.

The final draw was a close competition between Ida Romaniuk and Kay Thorsteinson. The Romaniuk rink took three rocks in the ninth on a miscalculated shot by Skip Kay Thorsteinson which put the Thorsteinson rink with an almost impossible task of coming home with five rocks. Second place winners were Skip Kay Thorsteinson, Third Dodie Burnside, Second Mabel Crawford and Lead Elaine Zwir, each receiving a Corning Coffee Pot.

Third place in this event was won by a Wawa rink Skipped by E. Morrison with V. Switzer, W. Piaskoski and J. Shames who were awarded sets of Two Dozen glasses each. Fourth place was won by a Terrace Bay rink skipped by Sylvia Duquette with Marge Hamilton, Norma Crockford and Agnes Paulsen each receiving sandwich trays.

Barbara Haugh's four ended in the eighth brought her from behind and from there on in she had no more trouble to place first in the second event. Barbara's Terrace Bay Rink was composed of H. Lafontaine, third, O. Chapman, second and Audrey Smith lead, and they were presented with acrylic comforters.

Second place in the second event was won by

Terrace Bay Skit Nat Coates with her rink of A.J. Blom, L. Gavin and V. Hanna. A Wawa rink, skipped by E. McDonald with E. Scott, D. James and E. Gough won out for third place. Fourth place went to a Rosspoint rink skipped by J. Gerow with F. Hubelit, P. Gerow and E. Spillett.

Third event was taken by Peggy Wellings, A. Sinkins, T. Megraw and B. Mason. Second place was won by a Schreiber rink skipped by Minnie McCuaig with A. Moore, E. Johnson and S. Bourguignon. Lila Gray of Port Arthur took home third place prize in this event and a Wawa rink skipped by E. Kunkel won fourth prize.

Presentation of prizes and congratulations were extended to each winner by Betty Bouchard, President of the Terrace Bay Ladies Curling Club.

A Banquet was held Saturday evening in the Moose Hall for all the Lady curlers when again Mrs. Bouchard was Mistress of Ceremonies. Grace was pronounced by Sylvia Duquette and toast to the Queen by Mrs. Bouchard who then welcomed the personnel of the thirty-two rinks entered in the Bonspiel and introduced the head table, among whom were her Terrace Bay Executive, the Peggy Wellings rink who represented Northwestern Ontario in the Provincials again this year and Mrs. Lila Gray of Port Arthur, Past President of the Northwestern Ontario Ladies Curling Association and Senior delegate to the Canadian Ladies Curling Association for the Province. Mrs. Gray urged all curlers to join either the Northwestern Ontario Association or the Northern Ontario Association in order to keep up their representation.

Draw prizes were made during the banquet with the Vicky Switzer rink of Wawa winning a set of pitchers and glasses, the Lila Gray rink from Port Arthur were the richer by winning mirrors and cups and saucers were won by the Rita Murphy rink from Fort William.

Show Biz was spelt to perfection when Alice Joy Blom presented her all-star revue with Virginia Galvin, Audrey Smith, Nat Coates, Marge Hamilton, Dodie Burnside, Ollie Chapman, Vivian Hanna, and Peggy Wellings performing and Ellen Hodgkiss pianist.

17TH ANNUAL ONTARIO RECREATION ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE IN PORT ARTHUR, APRIL 26 - 29TH.

Experts agree that what Canadians do in their leisure time may determine whether our country will survive or decline in the years to come.

More than 300 municipal recreation committee members and volunteer and professional workers in recreation will be on hand in Port Arthur for the 17th Annual Ontario Recreation Association Conference, April 26 - 29th, 1962, the only such meeting in Ontario concerned with all aspects of recreation and leisure.

The theme of this most important conference is entitled "Creative Living." It implies that we need a broadened concept of free time, leisure and recreation. This will be the primary meaning of the materials, speeches and discussions that are to be presented at the Conference. The concept introduced will be big enough to comprehend within it, the changed and major role of recreation in our society and an understanding of the forces and pressures which mould the recreation values and pursuits of our people. The delegates who will be attending all recognize that in a leisure oriented society, free time is uncommitted time, a resource for living, learning and serving. It is the arena in which (Cont'd P.13)
