

BROWNIE PACK ENROLLED(Continued from Page 4)
 by host of parents and friends. The event was held in the Guild Hall and the girls enrolled were: Lola Scott, Lynn Joliceur, Jane Bailey, Brenda Lalonde, Cindy Einarson, Susan Dimmery, Carolyn Glad, Ginny May, Cathie Stokes, Sheila McParland, Marilyn Cook, Neldine West, Denise Coss, Rosemary Spiezawki, Cathy LeBlanc, Becky Lang, Susanne Chicoine. Aileen Ross another member was ill and unable to attend but will be enrolled later.

The Brownies were enrolled by Brown Owl Stefurak, 1st pack, and then presented by acting Brown Owl Campbell to Madam Commissioner Mikus of the newly-formed district of Aquasabon, who gave them their pin and six emblem. In turn, Tawny Owl Stewart presented the text book, and Mrs. H. Shack, president of the C.W.L. gave each girl her shoulder flash and a Brownie pencil. Temporary sixers for this occasion were Jane Bailey, Brenda Lalonde and Marilyn Cook.

Other visiting guiders were Mrs. R. Beauleau, Mrs. T. Turner, Mrs. A. Sitch and Mrs. V. Thorpe of Terrace Bay.

Mrs. Shack, and Father J.M. Cano, P.P. spoke briefly of the C.W.L. and the Church's pleasure in sponsoring the Brownies.

The commissioner gave an interesting explanation of the origin of the Brownies through guiding and of its work and many interests, comparing the movement to that of a train with its crew who fill various duties and of the stops made by the train, and the cargo it carries.

There are 48 countries in which the Brownie association is now active, Mrs. Mikus said.

During the program Cathie Stokes sang a Brownie Song.

In addition to the Brownie symbol baskets of Spring flowers made an attractive setting for the ceremonies in which Tawny Owl Stewart, 1st pack, assisted.

The evening ended with lunch and a social hour.
