

BAND CONCERT (Continued from Page 8)

From Sipura, India, a wire of good wishes on a successful concert to Bill Farrell, President of the Terrace Bay Band from Bob Shirriff, was read following intermission. F.E. Bigelow's March 'Our Director' opened the second portion of the evening's entertainment, then from the Stage hit 'My Fair Lady' F. Loewe's 'With a Little Bit of Luck'.

The last of the soloists, and an extremely popular one, was trumpeter Bill Colborne as he played 'Come Back to Sorrento'. The Band also tried the modern Rock and Roll Temp' with 'The Red River Rock'. Another popular standard by Rogers and Hart - 'Manhattan'. and H. L. Walters arrangement of the folk song 'Londonderry Air'.

Bill Farrell, as President of the Band, expressed his pleasure at the fine reception accorded the Band on their program and outlined their short years of growth. He strongly urged anyone so inclined to join them, to just mention it to a member of the band and they would be welcomed. He then took pleasure in presenting Graduation pins to their new Band instrumentalists with the assistance of Bandsmaster Bert Lohr. Receiving pins were Gary Birmingham, Lois Praybrook, David Lohr, Bill Megraw, Jim Mikus. (Continued on Pg. 13)
