LOIS CHAPMAN AND CLIFFORD KNAUFF MARRIED

A wedding of local interest took place on April 23rd when Lois Ann Chapman, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Chapman of Fort William, became the bride of Clifford Henry Knauff, son of Mr. & Mrs. C.H. Knauff of Terrace Bay.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore floor length white silk organza. Her attendants were, Maid of Honor, Evelyn Catherine Knauff and Bridesmaids Mrs. Joyce Jefferson and Heather Morrison. All were gowned in matching floor length Romance Blue Peau de soie.

Best man was Barry Marquis and ushers were Robert Chapman and Wallace Jefferson.

At a reception held in the Westfort Hotel the Bride's Mother wore a beige lace dress with gold accessories and the Groom's Mother chose an Ice Blue duster ensemble with rose accessories.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Knauff, Sr., and Catherine, Barry Marquis, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Mason, Keith Sitch and A. Dejonghe of Terrace Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Knauff, Fort Frances and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klassen of Winnipeg.

Eric Hagloff returned home to Fort William Sunday having spent the Easter vacation visiting an uncle and aunt, Mr. & Mrs. Henry Duriez.

While here he and Jack Crandlemire assisted at the party celebrations in honor of his cousin Tommy Duriez' sixth birthday, Friday, April 27, taking the eight boys in games and fun before a party lunch was served.

class in basic oil painting and a course in ceramics and pottery.

The oil painting class is for teens and adults. Registrations are still being accepted. The opening session will be at 2 P.M. in the Recreation Centre on Saturday afternoons. Contact Mrs. S. Gaulin, 3578.

on the art of creating corsages and her lovely display of spring bouquets and centrepieces.

During the coffee period, convened by Eva Connors, a draw for all the lovely corsages, together with gifts of miniature gladioli bulbs and Dixon-Reid plant food found nearly all those attending returning home with extra prizes in their possession.

During the absence of Mrs. Connors, H. Goodfellow will handle membership cards and premiums.

CHEQUE PRESENTED TO CAS (Cont'd from Page 4) was guest speaker. Miss Muriel Atcheson, district representative for the Society was also a guest.

In his address Mr. Weedon spoke of family services of the society. There are, he stated, 55 CAS in Ontario, declaring the authorities should take a long-term view and realize that development of family service would be a tremendous saving in costs to a community.

Mrs. J. Boutlbee thanked Mr. Weedon and, on behalf of the Nurses, presented a cheque for $418 to be used for assistance of CAS work in the district.

A film was shown and business dealt with.
