"INDIA NIGHT" HELD BY LADIE'S AUXILIARY

President Marge Lundberg welcomed the many members who attended the May meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary Monday in the Terrace Bay Community Church and thanked M. Simmer and E. Beddard for their opening with the Worship period, also C. Gould for her lovely rendition of 'O Holy City'.

Minutes and correspondence were read by secretary H. Farrell and the financial statement presented by M. Ward. Convenors reporting were: Sick and Visiting - N. Coe, Publicity - M. Chisholm, Property - E. Rowson. The ladies indicated they would endeavour to hold the Fall Supper providing the Church construction has progressed sufficiently.

The President displayed an architect's model of the enlarged kitchen, for approval of the members. P. Kelty, Convenor, spoke on the Mother's Day Sale. The Rummage Sale will be held in the Church basement this year at 9.00 A.M. Saturday May 26 and Convenor Bea Williams requested items be available for pick up by Friday morning May 25th.

The supper is an annual affair held on the Sunday which marks the end of evening services. These services all resume in October.

Mrs. L.R. McCuaig, Chairman of the reception committee making arrangements for the Commonwealth Tour stopover on May 27th has sent pamphlets giving details on the Tour to the News Office. Local residents who are entertaining any of the delegates are invited to pick these up at the office.
