ST. JOHN NURSING CHIEF HONORED

Mrs. W.P. Warner, Chief Nursing Officer of Canada for St. John was honored by the local Brigade at a dinner in the Guild Hall last Tuesday when other guests were L. Crandlemire, Branch President and Mrs. Crandlemire, R. Wills, Secretary and Mrs. Wills, Peter Saunders and Mrs. M. Chepelsky, all of Terrace Bay, A.W. Cuthbertson, Branch Treasurer and Mrs. Cuthbertson, Rev. R.J.S. Inshaw and Mrs. Inshaw and Father J.M. Cano. Superintendent W.J. Cringle was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

In her address Mrs. Warner said she was most happy to find the membership increased and the Branch formed also to be told that premises had been secured for a headquarters.

The voluntary assistance of the Registered Nurses was of great value in the work and, on this cross country trip, one of her aims was to familiarize whenever possible, the phases of the work in which the nurses were most needed. Both industry and education are seeing the importance of health education and of learning first aid and the principles of home nursing.

Following the dinner other guests came for the evening when a round table discussion, led by Mrs. Warner, was enjoyed.

Mrs. Warner was the guest of Mrs. Harry Jartus for luncheon, followed by an executive meeting and later in the afternoon she addressed the high school girls on the work of St. John and the courses offered by it.
