

HERE & THERE IN SCHREIBER

Mrs. Alex Lamb is a patient in Westmount Hospital, Fort William, while her husband is in McKellar Hospital.

Mr. & Mrs. Bill Smith and daughter Sandra, are the guests of Mr. & Mrs. R. Gray, the men being cousins.

The sorting committee of the Children's Aid packed boxes for needy families recently and a plea is sent out for boys' trousers and shoes - ages 8 - 10 - 12 and 14.

The North Shore Registered Nurses Association met in Mrs. A.W. Cuthbertson's home last Wednesday to plan their new project. It was decided to again sponsor the Children's Aid Society and funds will be raised through tickets sold on $25 record collection - records of winner's choice.

Mr. & Mrs. John O'Donnell, visited with Mr. & Mrs. Austin Cosgrove enroute to their home in the Soo from Fort William where they were visiting the latter's parent.

John Cosgrove, son of Mr. & Mrs. Austin Cosgrove, has been accepted on a hockey scholarship to Colorado College and is eligible for a possible $2,000 yearly scholarship.

After attending their daughter Shirley's graduation exercises (St. Joseph's Hospital) Mr. & Mrs. A. Zaporzan of Gilbert Plains came on to visit their son Walter and his family.

Mrs. O'Driscoll of Renfrew, after visiting her son Terry in Fort William San, spent some time with her son Rod and his family here on her way home.

Jimmy Harris, enroute from Vancouver where he spends the Winters, to son Joe's home in Chapleau, stopped over for a visit with his daughters here.

Chal. McCuaig, Mr. & Mrs. Edward Hill, Wayne and Janet of Winnipeg, are the guests of the Lester McCuaig's.

At the request of Father J.M. Cano, P.P., Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church, Father Josef Ballann, of the Scallabrini Fathers, assistant in St. Anthony's Church, Port Arthur, held special Masses the past week for the many Italian-speaking parishioners.

Evening services were held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and morning services on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

While in Town Father Bellan visited many of the homes where his call was particularly pleasing to the older folks who conversed in their native language.

The Oddfellows and Rebekah Humanitarian Service (CPT) are most grateful to those who supported their ticket sale in recent draw for funds and are preparing for the annual Fall Candy Sale.

Anyone presently using or having invalid facilities belonging to the CPT--bed, mattress, crutches, wheel chair, etc., is requested to call Bill Collinson who will come to mark it with the committee seal. This is necessary in order that the many pieces of such equipment on constant loan to the general public can be accounted for when needed--the request is not made for a return of the articles where still needed.

COMMUNITY T.V. SERVICES
Terrace Bay, Ontario
PHONE TA 5-3305

Mrs. George Lemieux has returned to her home on Columbia Street, Schreiber, after spending a week at the Park Plaza Hotel in Toronto and a month with her daughter, Mrs. C.L. Snyder in Ottawa.

Lynn Richardson, Gen. Secy., Y.M.C.A., was in Montreal to attend Graduation Exercises at Sir George Williams University.

Lynn was in the first Graduating class (1937) with 11 men and one woman and was amazed to find 400 in this year's class - coming from seventeen countries - giving a truly international flavour to the ceremonies.

Lynn's class originated the "Guinea Pig Award," deciding on the odd title because they were, in effect, the guinea pigs of the University, when various modes of education at this level were tried.

The award is made for personal contribution of service and has only been presented seventeen times in the intervening years, showing that qualifications for the award are high.

The Library Board met on Friday evening with H.M. Ermel presiding. Mrs. P.A. Isaac who will be teaching in Ottawa next year was thanked for his work on the Board and wished happiness in his new home.

The return of the National Geographics for past year, bound and covered to place on shelves, was noted.

Mrs. K. LeBlanc was granted vacation from July 15 to 28th and the Library will be closed during that time.

The Women's Liberal Committee honored David Morgan, Liberal Candidate from Port Arthur, at a Tea on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Corbett and Mrs. G. Vallaincourt received and tea was poured by Mrs. J. Campbell and Mrs. W.T. Wallace. Mrs. J. MacIsaac was dining room hostess and Mrs. R.C. Macadam and Mrs. F.V. Harness Servitors.

Mr. Morgan, who was accompanied by A. Petrone, addressed the women in the afternoon and a public meeting in the Town Hall in the evening.

There will be no further meetings until September.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Principal O.B. Fasan presented the following report at the June 7th meeting of the High School Board.

Attendance is still staying in the upper brackets (97.55). Grade IX students arranged a debate and panel discussion for the last Home & School Association meeting.

the May 11 Sport's Day the lower school (Cont'd Page 7)

BEAUTY & BARBER SHOP
TERRACE BAY MOTOR HOTEL
PHONE TA 5-3209