of Terrace Bay, which again stresses the need of a large representation at the meeting June 21st.

Your attendance at the Annual meeting, your support to the elected executive is only one evening compared to the work your executive must do to bring hockey for your pleasure to Terrace Bay.

MEN'S FASTBALL

Since last year's Men's Fastball Executive has apparently disbanded and does not intend to call an opening meeting, it is now necessary to call a re-organizational meeting.

THIS MEETING WILL BE HELD NEXT MONDAY NIGHT AT 7 P.M. IN THE SMALL ROOM OF THE RECREATION CENTRE.

If you are interested in playing, be at this meeting. The league players must accept some of the responsibilities for handling the operations, so don't leave it to someone else. Register with: Shift 1 - Maurice Osmar; Shift 2 - Cy Brassard; Shift 3 - Barry Marquis; Shift 4 - Dave Whalen; Day Shift - Don Blom; Townsite - Recreation Office. SHOW YOUR INTEREST BY TURNING OUT.

O.B. FASAN ADDRESSES C.W.L.

The Annual Membership Banquet of the Catholic Women's League was held in the Town Hall, with the St. John's Church W.A. catering.

Mrs. H. Shack proposed a toast to the Queen and Father J.M. Cano said Grace. Mrs. W. Cocks, the president, pinned her past president's pin on Mrs. Shack.

Father Cano commended the members for their achievements in the work of the Church during the past year and expressed the hope that their interest and energy will continue to take them to higher goals.

Mrs. Pearson thanked the catering convenor.

The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. O.B. Fasan, Mr. Fasan was presented as guest speaker by Mrs. Cocks.

The essentials for success in Education was the subject of Mr. Fasan's address which he began by saying that, primarily, parents have the biggest responsibility since but a third of each school day is actually spent in the school, Regardless of the ability of teachers or their concern, unless parents are interested and express this interest, not too much can be accomplished in the best of schools.

Homework and attendance, are of primary importance; and these are the duty of parents.

"And", said Mr. Fasan, "if your High School family tell you they have no homework - come to see me"! The calibre of teachers employed is the function of the School Board and Schreiber has good teachers.

Mr. Fasan described the facilities which the new school will provide.

Mrs. G. McParland thanked Mr. Fasan and the dinner ended with benediction by Father Cano.

DELEGATES REPORTED ST. JOHN'S W.A. MEETING

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church met in Mrs. W.E. Furlonger's home welcoming back Mrs. J. Graham after her illness. Mrs. J. Corbett reported and Mrs. B. Gray gave a detailed account of the Annual Auxiliary meeting in Sault Ste. Marie, saying the importance of contributing to the furthering of Missionary and social service work was stressed. Mrs. J.D. Bryson said she invited Mrs. A. Brownridge to come here to display the Pakistan embroidery which she sells to raise funds for Missions in India. Mrs. Costall outlined proceedings at the Dorcas work committee meeting at the annual. All were thanked for their excellent reports.

Plans were completed for catering to the Trainmen's Banquet and for the Fathers' Day Tea, being held on June 16 in the Church Hall, from 7.30 to 9.30 P.M.

Arrangements were also made for the reception in honor of Archbishop Wright's visit for Confirmation Sacrament on June 20th. The reception will follow the religious service. Mrs. Bryson assisted the hostess in serving lunch.
