ST. MARTIN'S SCHOOL HONORS PATROL

Last Wednesday pupils of St. Martin's Separate School gathered in the Church Hall to acknowledge the splendid work done by their School Patrol this past term.

Introduced by Mr. Ray Kenney, Principal of St. Martin's, Constable H. Billings presented to each member of the Safety Patrol, a pen, as a token of appreciation from the Separate School Board. Constable Billings emphasized the importance of the work done by these girls and boys, patrolling the intersections and the Trans-Canada Highway crossings through fog, rain or frost to get the school children safely across.

Members of the Patrol were: Mary Slattery, Judy and Jennifer McInnes, Adrienne Long, Margaret Ann Pineault, Bob Long, Francis Helmink, Jerry Kennedy, Tommy Gerow, Mickey Valiquette and their School Supervisor this year had been teacher, Mr. Paul Rouble.

At this time Constable Billings also awarded winners of the Bicycle Rodeo who were pupils of St. Martin's School. These were Mark Caccamo and Mark Boudreau.

On Behalf of the Grade seven and eight pupils, Marguerite Mousseau presented their principal, Mr. Ray Kenney, with a gift and their appreciation of his year's work with them. Responding Mr. Kenney urged each and every student to use his God-given talents to the best of their capabilities. By so doing, they would be thanking him, their parents, their school, their home, and above all in the eyes of God.

In closing Mr. Kenney thanked the teaching staff, Constable Billings for his co-operation at all time, and Mr. Rouble, Supervisor of the Safety Patrol, and in bidding farewell to the pupils he advised them to play it safe during the holidays, to return to them in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Boudreau with Paulette motored through the States to Sarnia to visit their daughter Cecile Simms and family. During their stay their sons Claude from Montreal and John from Toronto joined the family for two days and they were accompanied home by another daughter Annette who had taken her Grade thirteen at St. Patrick's High School in Sarnia last term. Enroute they also visited with Mr. Boudreau's brother and family in Barrie, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Chadney will vacation in White Rock, B.C. with their parents during July.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hansen plan to visit Ray's family in Gravenhurst during their vacation.

Mr. W. Colborne leaves for London, Ontario to attend summer school.

Joyce Raper returned to her home in Toronto last week and will attend Teacher's College next fall.
