DOROTHY MACDONALD WEDS JOSEPH KENNEY

Before the altar of St. Martin's Church, adorned with mauve and white lilacs and red carnations on the side altars, a double ring ceremony united in marriage on Saturday, June 23rd, Dorothy Alma MacDonald to Joseph Gerald Kenney. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. MacDonald and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kenney. Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher officiated, with the Nuptial Mass following.

Miss Colleen Murphy was soloist during the ceremony with Mrs. E. Pineault at the organ. Altar boys were brothers of the bride and groom, Jonnie MacDonald and Eddy Kenney. Guest pews were marked with bows of white tulle holding a sprig of lily-of-the-valley.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her Father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white nylon organza, the fitted bodice of lace cut with a wide scoop neckline and tiny cap sleeve. Narrow panels of lace adorned the full skirt falling from a Victorian waistline. A crown of pearls held her Chapel veil of French illusion on which were appliques of lace, matching the gown, and she carried a white Prayer book covered with garnet roses, lily-of-the-valley and white streamers. She wore a necklace of cultured pearls, gift of the groom.

Matron of honor for her sister, was Mrs. R. Campbell who chose a waltz length gown of lilac organza, fitted bodice with scoop neckline and tiered skirt. Her tiara was of lilac sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Misses Sharon MacDonald and Colleen Kenney, sisters of the bride and groom, Junior bridesmaids, were dressed alike in maize frosted nylon and crowns of matching nylon net. They carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow mums. Two tiny Flowergirls, Gail MacDonald of St. Catherine's cousin of the bride, and Linda Ray of Schreiber were daintily gowned, Gail in pink nylon and Linda in white nylon, both bouffant over crinolines. Their headdresses were tiny crowns of white flowers and they carried baskets of pastel flowers.

Groomsman for his brother was Dan Kenney with Michael MacDonald and Barry Marquis, ushering.

For the reception in the Curling Lounge, the Bride's Mother received in a blush beige sheath and jacket. Her accessories were in white and she wore a corsage of white carnations. Assisting in receiving, the Mother of the Groom chose a sheath of lilac, matching lace jacket and hat with white accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. H. Hamilton was dining room hostess, cutting the wedding cake, and servitors were Misses Donna Fedorak, Barbara McMillan, Veronica Fedun, Carol McLeod, Iris Conchie, Mesdames Ken Dooley and Art Beaulieu. Miss Sandra Fedorak circulated the guest book and Mr. Dusty Miller propped the toast to the bride. (Continued on Page 8)

SUNDAY ROLLER SKATING THIS WEEK

This Sunday evening marks the opening session for Sunday roller skating. These sessions will take place on every Sunday evening throughout July and August, from 8 to 10 P.M. unless otherwise noted. Regular sessions will be held on Thursdays from 7 to 10 P.M. as well. Let's all get out to enjoy this healthy family recreation on Thursday and Sunday weekly.

Miss Nancy Tookenay of Rosebud, South Dakota, her brother Vincent Tookenay and Harlee Harliss, Ledgerwood, North Dakota, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. L. Tookenay.
