

HOLY ANGELS (Cont'd)

David Leisander, Elizabeth McGrath, Lloyd McLellan, Terrence McParland, Gordon Moorey, Sean Paradis, Carl Pearson, Terrence Singleton, Anna Spadoni, Patrick Spadoni, Steven Spizawka and Lance Stewart.

The graduates were feted at a special breakfast convened by Mrs. G.A. Scott for the C.W.L.

R. Campbell, president of the C.P.T.A. and J. Power, Chairman of the School Board were in charge of the annual field day held at the Ball Park last Wednesday. Races and sport events were run off the cash prizes were supplied by the C.P.T.A. There were also treats of ice cream, peanuts, etc.

Terry Martindale, Grade 4 teacher supervised the ball games between the classes when competition was keen and the fans vociferous in their support.

On Thursday afternoon Grade six and seven entertained the graduating class at a social and concert in the auditorium, decked for the occasion with tall standards of lilac and honeysuckle.

Sister Louise Frances and Sister St. Henry trained the children in the various numbers on the program and Sister Alexander was pianist. A Bow To The Graduates closed the most enjoyable program.

Steven Spizawka thanked the pupils on behalf of the graduates and Sister Lucile for her guidance during the year, extending good wishes to the teaching staff for an enjoyable vacation.

Catholic Girls Mother and Daughter Banquet

The Catholic Girls' Club held their 3rd annual Mother and Daughter Banquet in the Guild Hall with Sharon Webb as M.C. and Mrs. J.R. Rummery as guest speaker.

The Toast to the Queen was given by Marilyn Pearson and "Our Mothers" were toasted by Sharon Webb with Mrs. J. Speziale responding.

Father Cano, P.P., director of the Club and Mrs. H. Shack, the Councillor, were guests at the occasion.

Lorraine Dedard delivered an entertaining monologue on Baby-sitting. Farewell gifts were presented to D. McParland, G. McGrath, S. Webb and M. Pearson. A gift was also presented to Father Cano in appreciation of his guidance during the year. Sharon Webb, retiring president, introduced the new slate of officers, Marion Prescott, President, Mantell Cosgrove, V.P., Rosa Speziale, Secretary and Geraldine Duggan, Treasurer.

Mrs. Rummery chose Child Welfare as her topic, dwelling on the advantages of the course in Baby Care for girls who frequently work as baby-sitters.

BOWLING LEAGUE WINDUP

The CPR. Bowling league held its windup party for the season in the Town Hall with Jack Morrish as M.C. The winning team was captained by J. Figliomeni with players Gerry and Audrey LePage, George Birch and Mildred D'Arcy.

Men's High Average was taken by Elmer Niemi and women's high average by Esther Niemi. High triple was captured by J. Campbell and High Single by Ed. Swanson with Mrs. Swanson taking women's high single. A prize for the most consistent player went to "Mitz" Sakauye, and the high pressure award was captured by Mildred D'Arcy.

Monthly prizes were presented by Jack Morrish and J. Sawyer, President for -- October, George Birch - November Helen Dooley - December, Joe Campbell - January, Neil Ross - February, Barry Harper and Mitz Sakauye - March Jack Morrish and Ed. Swanson and April - Neil Ross. The roll-off trophy was also won by the team which won the league trophy.

Peggy Burroughs won a special prize for the bowler showing most improvement during the season. Two of the spot dances were won by Art and Kay LeBlanc. Allan Bourke was pianist for the party and during the evening a farewell gift was presented to Bill and Thelma Olson.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual picnic of St. Andrew's United Church was attended by an unusually large crowd whose good time was not spoiled by the rain storm for, since the children's races were over at the beach, the party returned to the Church Hall for the peanut scramble, lunch and other games.

Winners in the races were:- Girls, Glenda Miller, Susan Johnson, Lori Drake, Wendy Pitkanen, Nancy Spillane, Judy Richardson, Billie Weaver, Sandra Clemens, Daryl Weaver, Mary Violet Lang; Boys, Keith Scott, Bruce Williamson, Bob Fummerton, Bob Nesbitt, Michael Knowles, Billy Gellert, Doug. Cuthbertson, Len Christianson, Bill Drake, Fred Nicholl, Doyd Drake, Jody Davis and Danny Miller. Winners in Women's racing were Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mrs. Gary Drake and Mrs. Bill Weaver.

In the Men's Race Rod. MacCuaig, Keith Scott and Len Hiller received prizes and Jane Clemens with Daryl Lynn Weaver, Nancy Spillane with Susan Miller and Linda Nesbitt with Billie Weaver won in a three-legged race. Boy winners in three-legged race were Len Christianson and Fred Nichol, Billy Gellert and Bobby Hiller, Danny Miller and Eric Hande.

KINSMEN HOLD SUCCESSFUL FIELD DAY

Taking full advantage of beautiful weather a large turnout attended the Kinsmen Field Day last Monday. Sixty-two prizes were distributed to the winners of various races and Elizabeth McGuire, Bonnie Wood, Doug. Cuthbertson and Carl Wood were given awards for the best decorated bikes.

Other prizes went to:- Girl Comic, Cathy Bolan - Girl Original, Lynn Jolicouer and Helen Harness - Girl Fancy, Claire and Nicolle St. Pierre and Roland Courtemanche: Boy Comic, Bob Hiller - Boy Original Darcy Moorey - Boy Fancy, Donny Weaver and Michael McGuire - Decorated Wagons, Len Christiansen and Brent Cuthbertson.

Judges were Mrs. Gino Caccamo, Mrs. Lester McCuaig and Miss Bonnie Guina of Fort William. Draw prize winners were as follows:- $100 - Otto Strasser, $50 - Duddy Lidkea, $25 - Karen Thrower and $10 Door Prize, Mrs. Eugene Coss.

Chas. Kelly of Ft. William visited old friends in Schreiber over the weekend.

Mr. & Mrs. John Branchaud and family are driving to the west coast and down to Seattle to visit the World's Fair.