Following the meeting Mrs. Orral Wright presented an amateur show, the acts including square dancing, mock wedding and recitations. The evening ended with a box lunch.

I.O.O.F YOUTH PILGRIMAGE FETED IN SCHREIBER

The Youth Pilgrimage, sponsored annually by the I.O.O.F., assisted by the Rebekah Lodge, sent one busload with boys and girls from Washington, Oregon and British Columbia through Canada, enroute to New York where they will enjoy a tour of the United Nations. There were twenty girls and sixteen boys in the group which stopped in Schreiber recently, attending the Church service of their choice. Later they were served a noon turkey dinner in the United Church Hall, provided by the two lodges in Schreiber. Verl Thompson acted as M.C. for the occasion and the committee in charge were Messrs. Bill Jones, H.H. Howard, Pringle Plummer, J. Dejonghe, Ralph Miller and Bill Collinson.

Accompanying the bus were director Charles Chandler of Washington, Mrs. C. Robertson of Salem, Ore., and Mrs. J. Dyble of B.C. David White, one of the two bus drivers, who has made seven of these trips, is also an assistant leader.

The girls and boys, who must be between 16 and 17 and not a senior in their school, are selected by the individual lodge in their town or city, but with a bearing on the U.N.

The contest is non-sectarian - any student is eligible to enter. The reason seniors are not allowed to enter is that reports on the trip are presented to the schools and other groups who request same and seniors could, conceivably, be in college the (Cont'd Page 7)
