

ROMANIUK-LEBLANC VOWS EXCHANGED IN TERRACE BAY

Salmon pink gladioli adorned the altar of St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church on Saturday, July 21st for the marriage of Patricia Faye, only daughter of Mr. & Mrs. P. Romaniuk, Terrace Bay, to Allan Joseph LeBlanc, son of Mr. & Mrs. H. LeBlanc of Thurso, Quebec. Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher, P.P. officiated at the double ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass. Mrs. E. Pineault presided at the organ and accompanied soloist Miss Edith Adamo. Altar boys were Kenneth LeBlanc, brother of the groom and Michael LeBlanc, cousin.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her Father the bride was lovely in white peau de soie. Appliques of Chantilly lace encircled the scoop neckline and were repeated in semi-circles on the front of the skirt which swept back into a large bustle which fell in a graceful train. A tiny crown of seed pearls gathered the full Chapel veil of French Illusion and she carried a cascade of deep pink roses.

Her attendants were, Mrs. J. Uschenko of Sault Ste. Marie, Matron of Honor--Miss Patsy LeBlanc, sister of the groom from Thurso as Bridesmaid and the Bride's cousin, Miss Daphne Benabo of Fort William, Junior Bridesmaid. Gowned alike they wore Nile Ice peau de soie styled on classic lines with fitted bodices, scoop necklines and short sleeves. A wide cummerbund was caught in a large bow at the back above full skirts. Each wore a matching cap and white accessories and carried a semi-cascade of salmon pink gladiolas.

Groomsman was Leo LeBlanc of Thurso with brothers Ralph, and Bunny LeBlanc of Marathon and Ron LeBlanc of Thurso ushering the guests to pews marked with lily-of-the valley and satin bows.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel. For a reception during the afternoon at the Moose Hall the Bride's Mother received in a two-piece dress of pale beige linen with white lace bodice and accessories and a corsage of red roses. Assisting in receiving, the Groom's Mother chose a floral blue dacron dress, white hat and accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

The three-tier wedding cake nestled in tulle on the head table was flanked by tall bridal tapers in low crystal planter candle-labra holding pink flowers. Mr. J. Hale proposed the toast to the Bride and Mrs. A. Latour was dining room hostess for the buffet supper. Aunt of the Bride, Mrs. Ray Benabo cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Carolyn Fretz circulated the guest book.

For a honeymoon to points east the bride changed to a doubleknit suit of powder blue with white trim, matching hat and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc will reside at 5 Sund Crescent in Marathon.

Prior to her marriage the bride was feted with a Kitchen Shower at the home of Mrs. R. LeBlanc in Marathon with co-hostesses Mrs. Leo Sullivan and Mrs. B. LeBlanc and a Miscellaneous Shower when Mrs. A. Marquis and Mrs. L. Paulsen were hostesses at the home of the bride. Also another Miscellaneous Shower by girls of the Kimberly-Clark Office Staff on Board the Yennek piloted by Capt. Ray Kenney.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. S. Gurnsey, Grandmother of the Bride from Kenora, Mr. & Mrs. H. LeBlanc, Patsy, Ron and Kenney, Mr. & Mrs. H. LeBlanc, all of Thurso
