A wedding of local interest took place recently in St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church, Port Arthur when Eleanore Maria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schach, Port Arthur became the bride of Roger Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. LeBlanc of Terrace Bay.

The bride wore a full skirted white norganza formal gown and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Flower girl and ring bearer were Annette and Norman Graf.

The senior attendants Mrs. Wm. Isbell, Miss Heide Graf and Mrs. R. Linder were gowned alike in Copenhagen blue norganza over taffeta, and they carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Gilles LeBlanc was best man and ushers were Roy Linder and Alfred Schach.

A Wedding Breakfast for the bridal party and family was held at the home of the bride's parents and a dinner reception in the Prince Arthur Hotel during the evening. The bride's mother received wearing a dark green jacketed sheath with green taffeta trim. Her accessories were white and her corsage pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom assisted, gowned in a bone colored sheath with jacket, pale blue chiffon hat and bone accessories. Her corsage was also pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Bev. Porter proposed a toast to the bride, ably responded to by the groom.

The guest book was circulated by Velma LeBlanc and Barbara Pineault.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc will make their home in Port Arthur.
