MINOR BASEBALL NEWS

Bad weather caused cancellation of two Minor Baseball games during the week, with the Bantams' game at Marathon being the only one played.

The Bantams got off to a fast start at Marathon and took an 8-4 lead into the final inning only to lose 10-8 as Marathon took advantage of several breaks to win. Lineup for Terrace Bay was: J. Crandlemire, D. Schock, F. Erickson, B. Coates, L. Turner, C. Wood, J. Hayes, E. Moores, B. Robinson, G. Gusul, B. Wallwin.

Future games see Marathon Bantams here this Tuesday and Beardmore Little Leagues here Sunday. The Beardmore - Terrace Bay game will be a fastball contest, as Beardmore does not play baseball.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION CLASS

Anyone interested in joining the Royal Life Artificial Respiration Classes may still do so by contacting Ron Schock at the dam.

This course is specially geared for younger teen-agers.

Vivian and Frances Hanna with Douglas and Rosalind arrived home Thursday from a three weeks motor trip in which they travelled to the west coast, visiting in Castlegar, with the Emil Stolvolds and with many others formerly of Terrace Bay - the Walter Janickis, Ole Olsens, Joe Charbons and Harry Newells. In Kelowna they were the guests of Frances' brother Edward and in Burnaby with another brother Albert. (Continued on Page 11)
