

AWARDS NIGHT (Continued from Page 4)

Claire Belliveau, Wendy McMillan and Reid Boutilier.

The Juniors and Seniors from the Summer Playground combined efforts to present their version of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs before the main playground awards for the year were presented when Shena Caldwell and Danny Legault were named Junior Playground Champions and Lynne Simmer and Leo Legault were named the Senior Playground Champions.

The evening closed with a word of thanks again to the leaders by Ken Ward and an invitation to the parents to inspect the many forms of art at the back of the room. Denise Matuszak closed by playing "The Queen".

CURLING CLUB NEWS

The Executive of the Men's Curling Club met recently to make plans for the coming season. Events scheduled for the near future are as follows:- A Curling Smoker in the Club Lounge on Sept. 21st. Everyone is welcome (except minors and females). Tickets go on sale soon which give buyers a chance in the draw for a Mossberg 410 Shotgun. The program includes lunch, refreshments and movies. This will be a good opportunity for Skips to do a little early scouting for players.

The annual meeting will be held October 3rd in the Club Lounge.

Grand Opening will be held early in the curling season and will include a mixed bonspiel with turkeys for prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ginn were surprised by a social gathering of friends and family Monday evening, Sept. 3, on the occasion of their Silver Wedding Anniversary. Given a corsage and boutonniere on their arrival, Lou and Frank were presented with a Silver Tea Service by their family and gifts from their many friends.

Mrs. Dorothy Ginn was luncheon hostess during the evening and served the Anniversary cake, first cut in traditional fashion by the Ginns. Prior to the social evening Dorothy and Bob Ginn entertained them at dinner in their home.
