

HERE AND THERE IN SCHREIBER

North Shore Branch 102 Civil Defence Assoc. of Ontario held the regular meeting in the Junior Rangers' camp at White Sand Lake east on August 27th. I. Trudeau president and A. J. McGooley, secretary, were in charge of the meeting. Following the meeting 20 members and their wives enjoyed a corn roast and party.

Many an affectionate son, away from home, phones his parents but it took Ser. Clarence (Grogan) Sully to set a record. Grogan called home from Saigon and although the call was received in Rossport on Friday evening at 20 minutes to eight, Grogan, in Saigon, was talking at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

Chal McCuaig was home for the weekend bringing with him Art Shuttleworth, also of Winnipeg, and Chuck Shaw of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Burns have gone to Roblin and neighbouring centres for their vacation.

Frank Kelly of Thompson, Man. is holidaying at the Lake with his father, F.V. Kelly.

Wayne Olson, RCN, Dartmouth, is visiting old friends, the guest of Dave Powell.

Pat Page of Port Arthur is holidaying with her cousin Anna Fummerton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Burns and family spent their vacation at various camping grounds within the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolf. Allan returned home with Mr. and Mrs. F. Macadam, who had been their guests in Manitouwaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Doig of Trenton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pete Doig and Mr. and Mrs. N. McCuaig.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Megill and baby Michael have returned home to Toronto after a holiday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Caldwell and Kathleen Ann have gone back to their home in Aylmer after a round of visiting with the Caldwell families here.

Miss Margaret McEwen of Red Rock and Mrs. Robert Quigg of North Bay visited with the Hugh Stewart's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Priske, whose home since Mr. Priske's retirement from the RCN is where their comfortable trailer is, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray last week, en route to winter in Mexico.

Mrs. J. Hepburn left over the weekend to enrol her daughter Susan Caldwell in school in Belleville. Mrs. Hugh Stewart drove with them and will go on to Montreal to visit Hughie Stewart junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Stewart.

Mr. E. Belfry of Sudbury with Sister Magella, accompanied Sister Lucille to Schreiber last week where she will resume her duties as principal of Holy Angels Separate School.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sellors of Montreal visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Stitt, en route home after a holiday in western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. N. McLean of Newmarket were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mullins and Walter Ballard last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cronk and family of Fort William have been visiting the Bill Stefurak's.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bolan and Cathie are holidaying at Falcon Lake and Erin Park.

Miss Bonnie Guina of Fort William spent the weekend with Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire.

The Women's Institute will resume their regular meetings on Tuesday Sept. 11th at the usual time.

Lorne Kennedy of Fort William has been visiting Fred Kelly at the Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smilsky and family spent the holidays with the W. Smilsky's in London, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Madison and Teddy of Winnipeg visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Furyk recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Trowsse and daughter D'Arcy, who have been visiting the N. Jolicouer's and Lester McCuaig's have returned home to Dartmouth, visiting en route with Mr. and Mrs. Craig Trowsse in Hearst and Mr. and Mrs. Alex McCuaig in Cochrane.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and family of Fort William have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spadoni.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray leave this week for a holiday at the west coast and trip through the States to Las Vegas, Reno and other centres in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beaucage of Port Arthur visited with the Walter Guillet's en route to their vacation in eastern Ontario.

Mrs. Bill Olson of Sudbury was the guest of Mrs. Joe Cebrario last week.

Mrs. Archie McPhee of Sudbury visited Mrs. Gary Drake last week.

Ted Blanchard of Collingwood visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cocks last week- Ted and Mrs. Cocks being brother and sister.

Jim Eickmeier and his friend Bill Clark have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Eickmeier, Bill later going to his parents' home in St. Thomas. Other guests with the Eickmeiers were their nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Parsons with Don and Bob of Fort William spent the weekend with the Bill Kushnieryk's.

Bob and Norm Legault of Rossport were here for Field Day festivities.

Mrs. George Trehan, Robert and Richard of Fort William were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cliff last week.

Anne Marie McGrath won first prize in the Catholic Women's League amateur contest in Labor Day program, with her solo "Scarlet Ribbons". Second prize went to the D'Amours family acrobatics entry, done by Mona, Lise and Robert, and third prize to Anna Spadoni, Linda Sisson and Colleen McIsaac for baton twirling. Judges were Mrs. J.D. Bryson, Mrs. A.W. Cuthbertson and Mrs. L.R. McCuaig. Consolation money was given to all entrants in the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Giles, Leslie and Paddy have come from Elliot Lake to make their home in Schreiber.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada has about 171,000 shareholders, of whom about 59.2 per cent are women.