

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Lois McCausland was hostess Monday afternoon to the regular meeting of the Afternoon Branch of the Ladies Auxiliary, Community Church.

President Mrs. Bea Williams welcomed the members to the meeting and Mrs. Marge Anderson led in the opening Devotions.

Plans for the coming meeting included preparing parcels for shipment for Overseas Relief Fund and the Crippled Civilians in Toronto. It was also decided that since alterations to the Church are incomplete, they would forgo having pictorial Hasti-notes of the Church made until another year's Bazaar.

The afternoon closed with tea served by Mesdames A. Lehto and B. Williams.

Mrs. J.A. Plourde returned home to Campbellton, New Brunswick last week having visited with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Art LeBlanc for the previous three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Adelarde LeBlanc were guests from Atholville, New Brunswick last week with his brother, Art LeBlanc and family.

Darlene Gombola left Friday for Kingston, Ontario where she will attend Queens University this coming term. Darlene is entering Queens on a BA course majoring in Chemistry.

Jim Crawford left last week for St. Johns, Newfoundland to enroll this term at Memorial University. Enroute Jim visited with friends in Toronto, flying from there to St. Johns.

District Deputy Grand Matron Mrs. Isabel Marsh is attending the Grand Chapter sessions being held in Toronto this week.

BRIDAL SHOWER HELD FOR SANDRA PHILLIPS

A miscellaneous shower for Miss S. Phillips was held on Saturday evening September 15th, at the home of Mrs. T. Young. Mrs. M. Lundberg was co-hostess for the occasion.

Seated in a decorated chair with white streamers and under a pink parasol the guest of honor opened her many lovely gifts.

Mrs. J. Young was in charge of games played during the evening.

LOCAL ST. JOHN'S CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

G.L. Crandlemere presided for the meeting of the branch of St. John's A/N, Schreiber-Terrace Bay, on Sunday afternoon.

Minutes and correspondence were read by R. Wills, with letters from Brig. Eric Snow, Toronto, commending the division on its annual inspection and thanking the members for the hospitality extended him and other officers attending.

Brig. Snow also said the Charter would be formally presented at an official occasion later. C.E. Tanner, Secretary and Asst. Treasurer, St. John's Council wrote in connection with the framing of the budget for the year.

The brigade area commissioner's conference in St. John's House, Toronto, has been changed from the month of September to November, the date to be announced later.

At this time the revisions of constitution and by/laws will be discussed and the recent innovations in area limits, and appointment of Corps staff officers- the latter two not clearly understood by the branch.
