

HERE AND THERE IN SCHREIBER

Mr. and Mrs. I. West and Mrs. Ivan Jacomb are in Edmonton attending the retirement party of Charlie Hardy.

Rev. Tanner of Winnipeg, was guest speaker at a special service in the Gospel Mission on Friday evening. Mr. Tanner is Canadian secretary of the Mission to Lepers which works with lepers in all parts of the world, and he showed films depicting the work being done for those afflicted. In November Rev. Tanner is making a world-wide tour of leprosariums.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Pratt and daughter Lori Lynn of Rexdale are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sheffield.

D'Arcy McGuire has gone to Pembroke to take part in the 40th wedding anniversary celebration of his parents.

Miss Judy Olson of Fort William was the guest of Mrs. J. Cebrario this week.

Mrs. G. McBride joined Mr. and Mrs. A. Freed in Brandon, Man. They plan to visit Jasper, and other western points.

Mrs. Al O'Driscoll of Renfrew is the guest of the Rod O'Driscoll's, with her son Terry home from Fort William Hospital for the weekend.

Mrs. J.A. Graham is a patient in the Terrace Bay Hospital.

Lois LeBlanc will enter a Lakehead hospital this week for a medical check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gerow of Manitowadge have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pat Leisander.

Wally Simon is driving east with his brothers to Brockville going through the States to Rochester, Syracuse and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. H. Nolan in London, Ont.

Mrs. Sara Comisso returned on Wednesday after a visit with relatives in Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carmichael of Arnprior are the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. West.

Mrs. Bill Holland is making her annual visit with her sisters in Maine.

Mrs. Norman McCuaig and Mrs. Jack McCouan attended the Legion auxiliaries rally in Dryden over the weekend.

Visiting with the H. Martinsen's during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. C. Freeborn, Mr. and Mrs. L. Seed, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Roper all driving the Circle Route at different intervals.

Mrs. Rosina Gerow of White River visited friends here this week.

Mrs. H. Weaver, Mrs. Robert Weaver and Mrs. R. Spicer visited at the Lakehead last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindsay of Toronto visited old friends here recently.

Mrs. A. Laird has returned to Winnipeg accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J.G. Scott with whom she has spent the summer.

Mrs. J.P. Gagnon and Boyer visited at the Lakehead this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Wilkes spent a few days in Winnipeg this week.

Recent graduates of St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur, Miss Sharon Macadam and Miss Cynthia Bond have accepted positions on the staff and Miss Joyce Graham has gone to the Fort William Westmount Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Portelance and their sons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Godin while in town to attend the funeral of the late Dolpice Portelance.

Rio Nagasaki had his father from Winnipeg visiting him this week.

Bill Jackson, Fort William, is the new butcher in Caccamo's Groceteria. Mr. Jackson came to Canada from Scotland where he received his training. Also starting with the staff this week is Miss Fay Thorsteinson of Terrace Bay.

Family parties in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. McBride and daughter Diane of Kenora, were held by the Bruce McBrides, Ron McBride, Jack Richardson and Ralph Miller families.

Walter D. Harris of Peterborough was recently elected executive vice-president of the Ontario Recreation Association. Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris of Schreiber and brother of Rob Harris of Terrace Bay. He holds B.A. and A.S. (Association Science) degrees from Sir George Williams University. He has served as Boys' Work Secretary in Y.M.C.A.'s in Verdun, Que., and Regina, Sask. From 1951-57 he was general secretary of Lethbridge Y.M.C.A. Since 1957 Mr. Harris has been executive director of the Peterborough Red Cross and Community Fund.

Her display of fresh fruit and vegetables throughout the summer have won first prize for Mrs. A. Caccamo in surveys carried out by the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association. The inspections were made throughout the whole district, including the Lakehead, and unknown to the stores, with pictures recorded the display. The prize was a polaroid land camera.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Holmes who are leaving for Prince Rupert, B.C. were feted by friends at separate occasions. Glen was entertained at a stag party Saturday evening and presented with a wallet containing a sum of money, and on Sunday evening Mrs. Holmes was honored at a party held in the home of her sister Mrs. Tony Speziale, Columbia St. Also present were Mesdames L. Bryar, F. MacDonald, H. Prescott, M. Singleton, 'Butch' Moore, H. Gellert, B. McBride, R. Morrill, Edwin and Earl Holmes. A cheque was presented to Mrs. Holmes in token of their good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan and family of McReary, Man. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Moon will hold an open reception in the Town Hall from 2 to 5 P.M. October 6th, in honor of their daughter Marilyn whose marriage to Edward Chicoine takes place that day in Holy Angels Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Tees of Farnham, Que. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nicol.

Recent visitors with Mrs. Ernie O'Connor were grandsons Eddie and Reg Corbett, Mrs. Leo Corbett, Mrs. Mary Hansen and Andy Bond all of Fort William, Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gerow of Port Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bond of Arnprior. Also Mr. and Mrs. Tim Bond of Beardmore who, at the same time visited Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Ericson of Terrace Bay.

MR. AND MRS. F. RICHARDSON FETED

Mrs. Ford Richardson, who is leaving Schreiber at the end of the month, has been honored at several parties. Mrs. J. Einarson was the hostess last Tuesday evening when a china teapot with the Eastern Star insignia on it was presented as a farewell gift. Mrs. Jack Rattray was hostess for an afternoon tea on Wednesday when the quilting group of St. Andrew's United Church presented a gift through Mrs. Nelson Smith. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. (Cont'd P. 8)