CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (Cont'd from Page 1)

of Travel & Publicity was represented by Mr. J.
McHattie who gave an extensive outline of his department's requirements and advice with regard to the Council's work in tourist promotion. He also answered many questions about the extent of the Provincial Government grant available to Council.

On Thursday, Sept. 20th, the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce had Mr. Emery as their luncheon guest at the Hotel Terrace. Mr. Emery is field representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce. He brought greetings from these two organizations and was available to discuss details of the first year's operation of the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce.

Local Chamber members attending were C.E.
Paget, President, J.D. Kelty, Sec. Treasurer, C. Buck, M.L. Houston and N. Cornthwaite.

BETTER BOATING COURSE

Successful candidates in the Better Boating Course will please take note of a quotation from a letter received from the Ont. Safety League. "We are not issuing certificates any more. Decals are issued in their place." The Agriculture & Conservation Committee of Kiwans Club, Terrace Bay will present these decals to successful candidates as soon as we have received them.

Mr. & Mrs. John Ferrier attended the marriage of their eldest daughter, Catherine, to Mr. John Waddington, September 1st in Morgan Chapel, Queens University, Kingston, before holidaying in Ontario and Quebec, returning home last week.

Mr. & Mrs. W. Adamo accompanied their sons east as they entered University for another term. Peter is at the University of Waterloo on an Engineering Course and Eugene in his second year of Dentistry at the University of Toronto.

Mr. & Mrs. Elie Salesse have returned from their vacation trip which took them to Campbellton, N.B. to visit with friends and relatives and in Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Mr. & Mrs. W. Scheuchenpflug, accompanied by her Mother, Mrs. T.H. Wisinger, have returned from a holiday in Hamilton visiting his family. They brought back Werner's grandmother, Mrs. Greuner for a visit. Their guests this week include Werners brother-in-law and sister, Mr. & Mrs. E. Papri and Sylvia.

A near tragedy occurred Tuesday afternoon when a car backing from the Imperial Motel almost hit a baby carriage being pushed by a woman using the driveway as a short cut.
