

HERE AND THERE IN SCHREIBER

The sound of big machines working on the new Schreiber High School is music in the ears of everyone. Leighton Const. of Fort William has the contract for the school at somewhat over three hundred and ninety six thousand dollars.

Rev. R.A. Crook of St. Andrew's United Church was welcomed home this week after a lengthy stay in Rochester for medical treatment.

Eddie Lawson has gone to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. Townsend and family in Asher, Man. driving as far as Winnipeg with Mr. and Mrs. C. Nesbitt who are holidaying in western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mellis have returned to Toronto after visiting Mr. and Mrs. V.E. Everitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott from North Bay are spending the winter with Bill Scott.

His old friends were delighted to hear this week that Geno Spadoni, who has spent the summer in his villa in Italy, has recovered some vision in the eye in which it was feared the sight was lost. The last operation was performed in Italy where Mrs. Spadoni has gone to accompany her husband home.

Jimmy Harris, veteran shopman, who spends his winters in Vancouver and his summers with his son in Chapleau, was here to celebrate his 80th birthday on Oct. 4th with his daughters - Mrs. 'Pidge' Weaver, Mrs. J. McCouan, Mrs. H. Prescott and Mrs. C. Boon.

The Community sympathy is extended to Harold and Kay Gellert whose recently-renovated home was swept by a disastrous fire on Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. Greenshields was honored at a shower party arranged by Mrs. J. Corbett, Mrs. T. Whitton and Mrs. W. Miller, in the latter's home. Mrs. Greenshields was presented with a corsage and lovely wedding gifts from her old friends and neighbours.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sparkes were in Fort William this week to visit the latter's father who is ill in hospital. Dale Sparkes is leaving the Army shortly and returning home to complete his education.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hatch of Dryden have been visiting the R. Gander and H. Martinsen families.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Vogel of Enderby, B.C. have been visiting Mrs. E. O'Connor, their niece, and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lawson, old friends. The Vogels who are 85 and 82 respectively, made the long trip by bus thinking to see more of the color in Canada during the Fall, and have continued on to eastern Ontario. Visiting with Mrs. O'Connor during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. J. Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. D. Richmond and family, Miss Cynthia Bond, Miss Donalds Esposito and Miss Mary Huatiw all of Port Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliphant and Mr. and Mrs. S. Hartwright of Fort William have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Wright.

Miss Jacqueline Thomas of Ottawa has come to work with Caccamo's Staff.

Harry Daniels of Fort William was here for the weekend, visiting his son Ben and old friends.

Miss Bonnie Guina of Fort William spent the holiday with Mrs. D. McGuire.

Mrs. A. Moorey has gone to Belleville to spend Parents' Day with her son Gordon attending college there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Prebushewski and son Nicky of London are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell and a round of family parties with the Bob and Bill Campbell, Ralph Miller Don Souliere, Russell Campbell and Dwight Marshal families.

Mrs. E. Brennan, accompanied by her nephew Ernie Kelly has gone to visit relations in Pembroke and Alumette Island.

R. Campbell and J. Branchaud, president and past president of the local association, attended the C.P.T.A. diocesan convention in St. Elizabeth's School, Port Arthur.

A. Mills and his son Albert and Bob Godlauskowski of Simcoe, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fischer.

Herb Gellert has returned from Winnipeg where he visited his mother and his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lewicki are visiting friends in White River for the holiday; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith have gone to be with Dr. and Mrs. L. Poirier in Sudbury; Harold Shack, Neil Whent, Allan Holmes, Joey Sheehan and Bruce Gordon are home from College in Winnipeg; Tom McCuaig and Miss Marilyn Luck of Fort William are with Mr. and Mrs. A.B. McCuaig.

Mrs. G. Chicoine was hostess at a shower tea in honor of Miss Marilyn Moon recent bride-elect. Receiving with Marilyn were her mother, Mrs. W.J. Moon and her fiance's mother, Mrs. S. Chicoine. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. Johnson, Miss Sally Johnson and Miss Kathy Moon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deakins, with sons Teddy and Barry, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Moles all of Warton, are spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. W. Clemens.

Fred Crawley was called to Orillia this week due to illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whent are away on their vacation, visiting relations in Smith Falls, Toronto, Simcoe and other centres in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Inman of Fort William visited with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stefurak, en route to holiday in Ottawa.

The flower centrepiece for the Richardson farewell party was the gift and designed by Mrs. Russell Macadam.

Mrs. Albert Koski is a patient in the Terrace Bay Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Robt. Welbourne have returned to Montreal leaving baby Sharon Louise for a further visit with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. Welbourne.

The CPR Credit Union had a dinner party on Wednesday evening with each officer bringing a guest.

The parents' consent slips for school children TB tests have been returned and preparatory work for the mass survey is well along. The cubs will take posters for display and Legion auxiliary members are handling other advertising for the important event scheduled for October 23-24. Christmas seals have been folded by both Schreiber and Terrace Bay C.G.I.T. as a community service project.

Tuberculin testing of all school children in Schreiber and Rossport will be done this month. Mrs. W.G. Furlonger, Reg. N. Will be assisted by Mrs. R. Skinner and Mrs. G. McParland, in Schreiber and Mrs. Bert McGooley in Rossport, these also Reg. Nurses.