

COUNCIL QUOTES (Continued from Page 1)

Water rates for the Texaco Service Station and Restaurant were established at $3.50 and $1.75 respectively. Secretary Strutt informed Council following enquiry by Councillor Fraser, the overpayment for 1962 taxes would definitely be refunded before Christmas. Councillors Valiquette and Fraser were informed the Police and Fire Budgets could be presented before the end of the year. Councillor Welling stated the road budget was in very good shape and cleaning of sewers was going along well.

Tentative arrangements were proposed by the Reeve for an official opening of the Hydro Utilities Building around the middle of Nov.
