Mrs. G. Savoy read the minutes of the previous general meeting and all correspondence received. The financial statement was presented by Treasurer Mrs. J. Ruzyski. Reports were then given by all standing committees present.

Mrs. Mel Nicol gave a full report on the success of the Bazaar and on behalf of the C.W.L. the President thanked Mrs. Nicol, Convenor, and her co-workers who had helped in anyway.

The TB Health Clinic will be in Terrace Bay on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 17, 18, 19, which Mrs. Dashkewytch informed the members, provided everyone in the community the opportunity to have a free chest X-ray. Since this service was provided for the protection, she urged for a hundred percent turnout to the Clinic.

Father Delaney, the former Pastor in Terrace Bay, will be here to preach the Forty Hours' Devotions which starts next Sunday, Oct. 21st and ends at Benediction on Tuesday Oct. 23rd. The President added that those who had known Father Delaney realized how fortunate they were in having him preach. During this Devotion, the Blessed Sacrament is publicly exposed for the veneration of the faithful, in memory of the forty hours during which the Body of Our Savior remained in the Sepulchre and she added that each Catholic should realize it is his duty as well as his privilege to visit Our Lord during the time of Exposition.

Dean E.A. Gallagher imparted his Blessing after which Holy God We Praise Thy Name and O Canada were sung. The meeting closed with prayers followed by a social hour and luncheon served by Mrs. A. Valliquette and her committee.

following Saturday afternoon and evening to the High School Auditorium when the Terrace Bay Art Club presented its annual Show. The Exhibition was a Club effort with contributions by members G. Boyd, G MacDonald, J. Smith, W. McKechnie, M. Middaugh, F. Miller, W. Chadney and S. Gaulin.

Featured at the Exhibit was the work of Ainsley Middaugh, who is the talented young 1963 candidate for the Northwestern Scholarship in Art.

This year's display was the most successful to date - impressive not only for its large array of 107 framed oil entries and 43 matted, but for the quality of the workmanship. The public response to the Exhibition was very enthusiastic, the viewer's remarking on the advancement shown by the individual and by the Club as a whole.

This season the Club is working in oils as usual but is encouraging the use of other media; many examples of which were displayed - chalk, charcoal, pastel, oil pastel, wax crayon, pencil and pen drawing, silk screen prints and mono-prints. Their latest venture is in the field of ceramics and during both afternoon and evening shows, a demonstration by Mary Middaugh aroused considerable interest in those present. The demonstration included the coil and slab methods of making pottery items without throwing them on the wheel, and also demonstrated in throwing them on the wheel. Mrs. Middaugh displayed green ware (unfired pottery), bisque which is when it is fired, underglazed which showed it had been fired with (Continued on Page 8)
