CUBS BECOME SCOUTS IN COLOURFUL CEREMONY

Friday night was an important night for thirteen Wolf Cubs as they left their chums in Cubs and went up into Scouts. The Scouts were formed in a large horseshoe and the two Cub Packs formed in a large circle presenting a colourful picture for all the parents and friends present. Lead by their Akelas, Cubmaster Clarence Rousseau, and Paul Malashewski, the following boys, Bobby Gould, Michael Kujbida, George Dashkewytch, Michael LeBlanc, Bobby Moores, Bob Hofland, Tony Matush, Reid Boutilier, Bobby Hales, Teddy Paget, Graham Coe, Tommy Knight and David Cruickshank were introduced to Scout Master Bill Megraw who, in turn, introduced them to the Scout Troop and their Patrol Leaders. Three Cheers were given by the Scouts.

Then the Cubs had their Grand Howl and after their Akela said, "Good Hunting and Go Straight Home," the Cubs left.

The Scouts continued on with their meeting and enjoyed a lively game under the direction of Ass't Scouters Sam Ballentine and Brian Peterkin. Later in the evening Scouter Megraw presented the new Scouts with their guide book in Scouts called "Tenderfoot to Queen Scout." He also presented Patrol Leader Brian Hubelit with his First Class Badge. This is quite an honour as it is the accumulation of at least two years of hard work and it is one of the most desirable badges in Scouting.

With Scout Silence and the lowering of the Union Jack the meeting came to a close.
