

WEDDING (Continued from Page 8)

The best man was Tony Osler of Ledgerwood and the ushers were R. Ahola and M. Cosgrove.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in floor length re-embroidered lace over taffeta, ornamented with lace encrusted with silver sequins. Her veil was circular and she carried a colonial bouquet of garnet and gold roses.

Mrs. Reino Ahola, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, Miss Frances Landmark, the bridesmaid, and Lorna and Norma Ahola, twin neices of the bride, flower girls.

The senior attendants wore identical gowns, Mrs. Ahola in gold and Miss Landmark in bronze. Their whimsy veils, slippers and gloves, harmonized with their gowns, and their bouquets were bronze and gold mums with oakleaves and wheatheads.

The flower girls' frocks were pale yellow chiffon and their headdresses Gibson girl bows of yellow taffeta ending in long streamers. They carried white baskets of baby mums in bronze and yellow.

The wedding breakfast was given in the Schreiber Hotel and during the afternoon the bride's parents held a reception in the town hall when Mrs. Tookenay received in gray brocaded sheath with hat, accessories and corsage in bronze and gold. The groom's mother chose a black and white sheath with black accessories and corsage of bronze mums.

Tea was poured by Mrs. J.H. Lalonde and Mrs. S. Petrushack, with Mrs. K.S. Williamson, and Mrs. Ralph Miller replenishing. Servers were the Misses Sally Stewart, Viola and Eleanor Sabourin, Myrtle and Shirley Petrushack and Bea McBride.

Miss Vienna Risk circulated the guest book, Miss Carol Lalonde was in charge of the gift table and the bride's brother Joe served the punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harles drove to Niagara Falls for their honeymoon. They will make their home in Sisseton, S. Dakota.

Among those from out of town attending the wedding were Mrs. M. Harles, M. Harles jr, T. Osler, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kriz, R. Kriz, G. Kriz, Miss A. Gereszcek, Mr. and Mrs. A.
