ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT VISITS REBEKA LODGE

Ruby Rebekah Lodge #279 held a special meeting to mark the officical visit of Rebekah Assembly President Mrs. Eula Hyckie of London, who was accompanied by Mrs. Matilda McDonald, Vice-Pres. of Fort William, Mrs. Mavis Slater, Assembly Color Bearer, of Schrieber, and Mrs. Helen Holm, D.D.P. of Port Arthur.

The visitors entered under an arch of pink and green carnations held by a guard of honor clad in pastel-hued gowns; - Mesdames J. Macadam, N. Thrower, M. Smith, W. Clemens, all P.N.G.'s, A. Niemi and E. Harness.

Mrs. Hyckie was introduced by Mrs. O. Wright, Mrs. McDonald by Mrs. C. Weaver, Mrs. Holm by Mrs. B. Whent and Mrs. Slater by Mrs. J. Stitt.

The N.G., Mrs. Florence Whent welcomed the guests and presented each with a corsage after which Mrs. J. Macadam presented the carnations used in the arch to Mrs. Hyckie.

In the business meeting the minutes were read by Mrs. Beth Macadam, and reports were given by Mrs. J. McCanna, Mrs. J. Plummer, and Mrs. B. Whent.

Mrs. Hyckie spoke on the origin and meaning of the Order and the obligations each accepts on becoming a member. She thanked the members most graciously for the honors arranged on her behalf, and also for the gift. Mrs. Holm and Mrs. McDonald also expressed their appreciation.

Cards were played and Winners were: Mrs. W. McKechnie, Mrs. F. Higgens and Mrs. R. Collinson.

A cake, made and donated by Mrs. J. Macadam marked the Lodge's Anniversary, and the members sang their annual toast.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Wright's committee and tea poured by Mesdames Bryson & Higgen.
