TOWN TOPICS

CHORAL GROUP PRESENTS FINE CONCERT

Twenty-eight choristers, Director James E. Jewitt, group accompanist Helen Bruzas, Master of Ceremonies Jack Thompson of CJLX Radio, special lighting effect man Omer Deslauriers and stage hands Bill Walker and Thor Hansen of the Lakehead Exhibition Board all helped to bring to district residents a memorable concert last Saturday evening in the High-school Auditorium.

Appearing first on stage in snappy blue blazers; white skirts and shoes (for the ladies), white shirt and blue ties and dark trousers (for the men), the group's first five classical numbers allowed them to display their ability to sing in true "music festival winner" style.

"Music in a Lighter Mood," the title of the next five numbers created a rustle in the audience as the group, appropriately costumed, rollicked through such favorites as Min Skól, Din Skól.

Following intermission the ensemble were back on stage in colorful array and here their apparent enjoyment in song became even more evident. During their rendition of "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands" a darkened stage was lit by fluorescent hands to dramatize the music.

Soloist Mrs. Barbara Kirkup, accompanied by Mrs. D. Higgins, sang two numbers, "Like to the Damask Rose" and "The Lass with the Delicate Air". Flawlessly performed, we were the more impressed with her last number which pleasingly displayed both her range and expression.

Excerpts from "Naughty Marietta" had Arlene Loney and A. Manning taking the solo parts in a rousing performance. Here again the group's evident enjoyment of their parts was evident and a change of costume, together with Master of Ceremonies Thompson's synopsis left the audience with the feeling that they had just seen and heard the entire musical comedy.

A great deal of praise goes to the Lakehead Choral Group for undertaking the trip, bringing all their costume changes - special lighting et cetera and their gift of song to the district.
