

AWARDS NIGHT (Cont'd from Page 2) a $ 2,000 scholarship to Bill Colborne. This had been the first time it was awarded and Mr. Ferrier hoped other students would strive to win, not one, but two of the awards still available. On behalf of their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Colborne were requested to stand and receive Bill's ovation.

The Guest Speaker, Mr. David Morgan, Administrator of Lakehead College, directed his remarks to both the students and parents. His topic "A Purpose For Canada" was a message designed to stimulate the thoughts of both generations.

A. Chisholm, vice-chairman of the Board presented Intermediate Certificates to those who had completed Grade 10 course of study and Graduation Diplomas to those who had passed Grade 12.

Validictorian Arthur Trudeau declared that students must think seriously of what lay ahead. Principal A.E. Hartman presented a pin to Arthur with congratulations before the programme closed with a word from student Council President Bruce Young.

Velma LeBlanc accompanied the singing and Paulette Boudreau designed the program cover.

At the Tea following the programme a white linen cloth covered the table with its centre piece of green and white carnations offset by tapers in the same colors. Mrs. A.N. Chisholm and Mrs. W.J. Cavanaugh presided at the tea services and catering was by the Catholic Women's League, assisted by Mrs. Hartman and senior girls of the school.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR NORVAL BANKS

Funeral services for the late Norval Banks, aged 60, whose death occurred November 21st, were conducted in the Terrace Bay Community Church, and at the graveside Saturday afternoon by Rev. T. Garnet Husser, assisted by Rev. Frank Moore from Red Rock.

Hymns during the services were "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" and "Abide With Me", led by the choir and accompanied by the Organist Mrs. S. Hodgkiss.

Pallbearers were: R. Harris, T. McInnes, P. Stuart, W. Young, R. Fournier and B. Stewart.

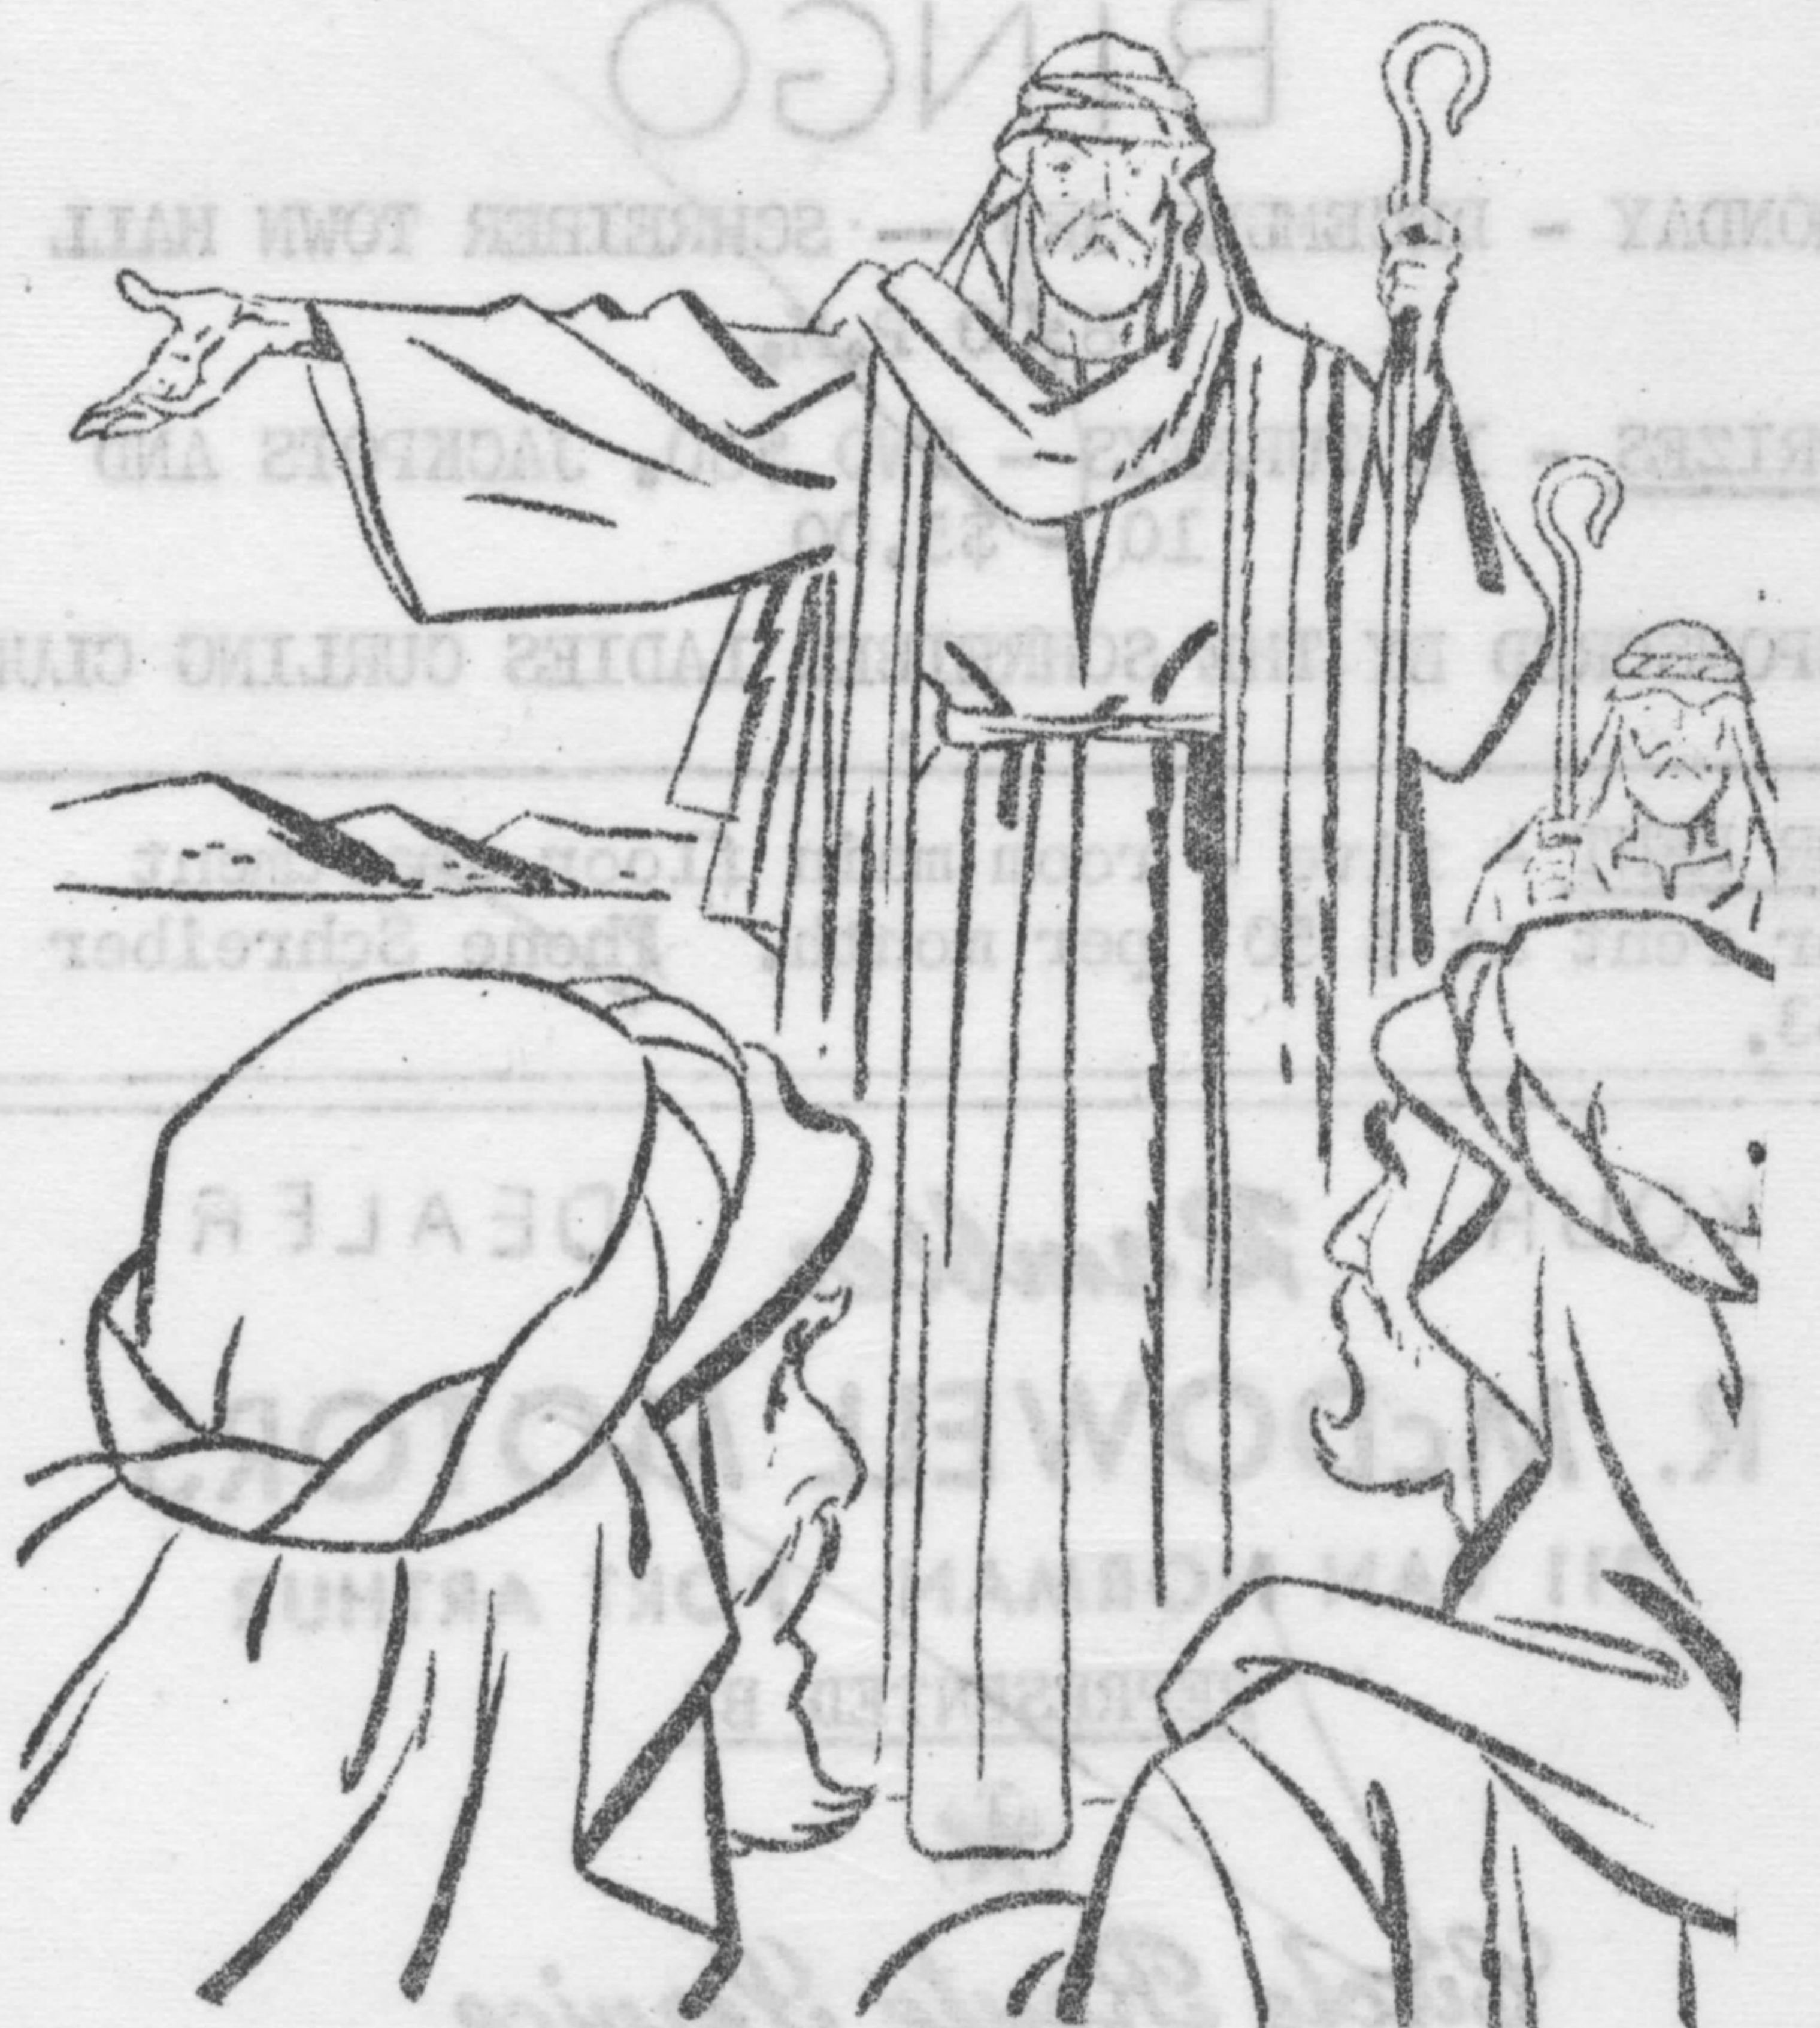

Mr. Banks is survived by his wife Grace; three daughters; Margaret, Mrs. Russell L. Weaver of Schreiber, Myrtle; Mrs. Bruce McBride of Schrieber, Mary; Mrs. Frank Moore Jr. of Red Rock, and nine Grandchildren; two sisters Mrs. Wm. Bishop, of Lawrencetown, Annapolis County Nova Scotia and Mrs. J. Nimmo of Toronto. He was predeceased by a brother Leslie.

Born in Meadow Vale, Nova Scotia, Mr. Banks received his education and training there. He came to Terrace Bay during construction of the Mill in July 1948, transferring that year to Kimberly-Clark Corporation where he has been employed since. Mr. Banks, a Baptist, was a member of the Terrace Bay Community Church. He was a member of the I.B.E.W. and his outside interests included hunting, fishing and gardening, having one of the finest and loveliest gardens in Terrace Bay.
