information on their premium offer. The members were asked to save Canada Packers wrappers and labels.

Mrs. Chisholm reported for the Manse Committee stating that the work on the Manse basement was almost completed and a note of thanks was to be sent to the volunteer workers. Mrs. A. Farrow, Convenor of the Christmas Bazaar, gave her report thanking her convenor Mrs. H. Hall and convenors of the various tables and all those who helped in any way. Mrs. Lundberg in turn thanked Mrs. Farrow, Mrs. Hall and their helpers, and requested the Secretary to write thank you notes to Costa's and Caccamo's for their donations.

The President called for volunteers for the Nominating Committee, with Mrs. F. Sough-ton, Mrs. A. Reynolds and Mrs. H. Haughn offering their services. Mrs. A. Pattison and Mrs. J. Ferrier volunteered to audit the books.

Mrs. J. Brooks announced there are C.G.I.T. Chocolates still available. Rev. T.G. Husser, on behalf of the Church Board, brought the suggestions of a New Years Eve family party for those who did not have other plans. The group was asked to consider the idea. The President called for volunteers to assist in serving luncheon to the Sunday School teachers after their Sunday School Concert Friday evening December 14th. Mesdames Sinkins, Smith, Chisholm and Ferrier offered to assist the President.

On behalf of the Boy Scouts of Terrace Bay, Brian Hubelit and David Mercier accepted from Mrs. Lundbert, the gifts of toys brought by the ladies for their Boy Scout Toy Chest. Brian expressed his thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary for this donation.

Rev. T. Garnett Husser was introduced and gave a most inspiring Christmas message. Mrs. Lundberg thanked Rev. Husser. The meeting closed with singing Christmas carols led by Mrs. Chisholm. In keeping with the Christmas season, the ladies enjoyed luncheon of jellied salads and fruit breads served at tables decorated in the Christmas theme, by Mrs. Reynolds and her committee.

VESPER SERVICES HELD BY C.G.I.T.

Christmas Vesper Service for C.G.I.T. Leaders and members was conducted Sunday evening, Dec. 9th, in the Terrace Bay Community Church. The Organ Prelude was a medley of Carols with Donna Brown presiding at the organ and accompanying the hymns. "Hark the Glad Sound, the Saviour Comes" was the Processional as the girls entered the Church to the Choir stalls. Jean Hopper gave the Call to Worship and Shirley Desrosier led in prayer.

The girls joined in choral reading of Psalm 98 with solo by Linda Lawrence. Bonnie Beddard read the Christmas Scripture and the entire Choir rendered "Gentle Mary laid her Child".

Holly Berndtsson led in a Litany with C.G.I.T. members and the Offering was accepted and dedicated by Beverley Phillips. The Hymn "Angels from the Realms of Glory" preceded the Meditation given by Ainsley Middaugh. The Act of dedication in the Candlelighting was performed by first Beth Hopper, second Jill Crandlemire and third Marcia Jeanneret.
