The fact that the total collections of $6,422.00 represents 98.6% of the pledges indicates the spirit in which the employees enter such an Association.

FLOODLIGHTING POPULAR FOR HOLIDAY LIGHTING
The trend in outdoor Christmas lighting and decorating is now to floodlighting, used alone or to highlight a single, effective theme.

According to Ontario Hydro's Lighting Service, simplicity is the key to effective outdoor Christmas lighting.

For outdoor floodlighting, Hydro recommends PAR-38 floodlamps, which are available in white with removable colored caps, as well as in a range of permanent colors. Also available this season are floodlight kits, which contain a 100 - watt colored outdoor floodlamp and six feet of weather-proof cord. The lamps can be hung, or placed in the ground on a spike which is also supplied.

For the best effect, 150-watt floodlamps should be placed as far back from the house as possible, up to about eight feet. Low-lying shrubbery is ideal for concealing the floodlamps.

Colors must be selected with care. Blue lights are ineffective on anything but white or buff exteriors, and turn red brick an unattractive purplish brown. Red light on red brick provides a warm and cosy look, and contrasts well with surrounding snow.

An interesting architectural feature, such as a corner or a gable, or a decoration, can be highlighted, but the rest of the house should be bathed in light as well. Use similar wattage lamps for all floodlighting, with a white lamp for accent and a pastel color for the remaining lamps.

Lighting equipment should be approved for use outdoors by the Canadian Standards Association, and identified by the CSA certification mark, a large "C" around "SA". Outdoor lights are moisture proof and heavier than indoor ones. Weather-proof outdoor outlets, installed by an electrician, are also recommended.

With the wide range of decorative lighting equipment now on the market, you can turn your home in to a cheerful and original Christmas greeting for everyone who sees it.

CHRISTMAS CARE CAROL

It's the season of Christmas - a great time at home.
But many are stirring...In cars they will roam.
Throughout this glad season for business and pleasure.
May they carry CARE, with them, and may they all measure.
Their minutes with watchfulness, miles with safe rules,
And use CAUTION, though others may be reckless fools.
Whatever for Christmas YOU'RE happily giving,
The finest of gifts is for YOU to keep living!
So, let us with reason enjoy these good days-
And as through the season we go on our ways,
Let's drive with the spirit of honest good will
And never take chances for hurry or thrill,
Let's remember that life in all seasons is
(Cont'd on Page 14)
