SITCH - SCHOCK NUPITALS

Red and White Carnations adorned the altar of the Terrace Bay Community Church for the wedding Saturday afternoon, December 15th, of Norma Ethel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schock, to Keith Roger, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sitch, all of Terrace Bay. Rev. T. Garnett Husser officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss presiding at the organ.

Entering the Church on the arm of her Father, the bride was radiant in formal gown of white chiffon velvet. The softly fitted bodice with round neckline and lily pointed sleeves, wrist length, accentuated her full skirt. A bouffant shoulder length veil of silk illusion was held by tiny crown of rhinestones and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Betty MacFadyen who chose a red peau de soie sheath with a widely pleated overskirt. She wore a whimsy of matching red net, red shoes and white gloves and carried a cascade of white carnations.

Allen Saxberg of Fort William attended the groom as best man while Andy Dejonghe ushered to the guest pews, each marked with a large white satin bow.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel, where the Mother of the Bride received in a jacketed sheath of gold brocade. Her accessories were brown with a corsage of white feathered carnations. The Groom's Mother received in a blue brocaded jacket dress, white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Centering the headtable the three tiered wedding cake was topped by a pair of doves. Mrs. L. Willaims cut the cake and Mrs. H. Hamilton was dining room hostess with Miss Joan Hopper servitor. Rev. T. G. Husser proposed the toast to the bride and the guest book was circulated by Tommy Schock.

For their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and eastern points the bride travelled in a double knit suit of red, topped with a white maribou hat and white corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Sitch will reside at 388 E. Cristina St., Fort William.

Prior to her marriage the bride was feted by a shower at the home of Mrs. W. Sernesky assisted by Mrs. H. Hamilton and Mrs. L. Williams, and Mrs. N. Wickert and Miss B. MacFadyen of Fort William were also shower hostesses for the bride.
