SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS SECOND ANNUAL CONCERT

The Terrace Bay Community Church held their Second Annual Concert last Friday evening December 14, with all age groups of the Sunday School participating.

With Sunday School Superintendent Mr. Bill Kurylo as Master of Ceremonies he called upon Rev. T. Garnet Husser first to address the capacity crowd of parents, children and friends, who filled the Highschool Auditorium.

The Primary group listened intently, as Beverly Phillips read to them the story of the first Christmas, a few of the older members enacting the parts, and joining to sing 'Silent Night' and 'We Three Kings'. This group are taught by Mrs. J. Brooks and Mrs. K. Turner.

The classes of Mrs. Virginia Galvin, Miss Jean Hopper, and Ainsley middaugh, Mr. Fred Gould and Mr. Bruce Young joined in presenting 'Christmas at Acorn Lodge' with costuming by Mrs. R. Harris.

Growing in age and stature Miss Holly Berndtsson's boys class enacted 'Star of the East' and 'The Night Before Christmas' was presented by Mrs. W. Anderson's class of girls. Mr. Rod Thompson depicted the story of 'You Can't Get a Good Man Down' while the boys from his class and Mr. Bob Hopper's class carried out the story.

The girls of Mrs. Bonnie McKay's class recited verse for 'Christmas Cookie' and Mr. George McKay's boys told the story of 'The Fake Santa Claus'. Miss Wendy Duncan's class of girls recited in their version of 'Christmas Stockings' and Mrs. Bob Hales class of girls were the "Angels".

Large Christmas Stockings were held as girls from Miss Judy Thomas recited poems on 'Christmas Stockings'. Mrs. A. McKechnie had the boys and girls from her class in costume as they displayed what it would be like to have 'Christmas in Mexico'.

Boys and Girls from Mrs. Bob Middaugh's class again joined to play out the story of 'The Fairy Who Couldn't Fly' as told by Lois
