

W.I. MEETING (Cont'd from Pg. 9) answered by twelve members with gifts for the Christmas hampers.

A donation was made to the "Canadian Save the Children" fund, also to the local Children's Aid Society toward the purchase of toys for children.

An excellent report on Canadian Industries was given by Mrs. R. Macadam. A report was postponed until the next meeting.

Mrs. E. O'Connor, tea hostess, was assisted by a wreath of holly and pine cones and red and white candles.

missable. Tuesday night skips are Rune Ostling, Howard Solly, Doug Thompson and Don Whitley. It is hoped that this league will become a permanent addition to the club.

CLUB SWEATER ON SALE

The new Club sweaters have arrived and this first shipment is being sold by Art Reynolds. There are only three or four left. Club trustees Dan Kenney and Doug Knight will take orders from now on and will send an order in whenever they have a list of four or more names. Incidentally, the sweaters are really nice and to 'set them off' new smaller sized crests have been ordered. These crests will be made of

CURLING NEWS

'Tuesday Night' League starts

To accommodate Curlers who wish to curl only one night a week, a new league has been formed under the chairmanship of Don Whitley. This league, as the name implies, will curl every Tuesday night for the balance of the season. A club trophy is at stake. These curlers have full club membership and will abide by the rules in effect for the regular league. Inter-league substitutions are perchenille.

CHRISTMAS SOCIAL HELD

A very successful Christmas social was held in the beautifully decorated Club lounge on Saturday night. Beggie Thorsteinson's rink won the novelty curling event. Jim Rogers and his 'Hotel Rink' were runners up. Santa Claus was there to distribute prizes and gifts and to add to the merriment.

DUES AND LOCKER FEES

The deadline for the first installment of curling dues was December 10th. If you haven't paid as yet, you are urged to contact Sandy Crawford and do so. Locker fees ($2.00) are also due. See Dan Kenney or Doug Knight.
