CHRISTMAS CONCERT HELD

A Community Christmas Concert was held in Terrace Bay, Thursday evening December 20th, when the Men's Chorus and Terrace Bay Band combined efforts in a Christmas mood. Special guests of the evening was the St. Martin's Junior Girls Choir and proceeds from silver collection will be forwarded to Care.

Assembling on the steps of the Highschool Auditorium stage to the opening refrain from the Band, the Men's Chorus were thus accompanied in 'O Come All Ye Faithful' before Master of Ceremonies Mr. Al Chisholm bid the large audience welcome. Introduced for their next four numbers, the two groups continued together for 'Bring a Torch', 'God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen', 'The First Noel' and 'Good King Wenceslas', led by Music Director; both Chorus and Band - Mr. Bert Lohr.

The next portion was by the Terrace Bay Band alone with four numbers: 'The Southern Illinois Band Association March', 'Christmas Moods', 'Dancing Reeds' with the starring trio Don Whitley, Bill Farrell and Bill Megraw and lastly Rapazz Band.

Following a brief intermission, the guest artists for the evening, The St. Martin's Junior Girls Choir were introduced by the Master of Ceremonies together with their Director Mrs. L. Vezina. Mr. Chisholm explained the Choir had been singing as a group for seven years, though the ages of the girls, were nine to fourteen. Accompanied at the piano by Master Ronald Matuszak, the young voices lifted as one to sing: 'Silent Night', 'Sleep, Holy Babe' and 'O Come All Ye Faithful'.

Returning to the stage, the Men's Chorus emphasized the wintry backdrop created by the Terrace Bay Art Club of a tiny Church nestled in snowy hills and distant homes with smoke curling wreathes in the crisp air. Their selections, accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss at the piano were: 'Winter Song', 'Winter Wonderland', 'White Christmas' and 'Climb

Every Mountain's.

A cablegram with best wishes for a successful concert was read by Master of Ceremonies Al Chisholm from four former members of the Band: Ruth, Bob, John and Bill Shirriff. Lastly, all performing artists gathered on stages and steps, and joined by the audience enjoyed a rousing community sing of Christmas Carols to conclude the program.
