

SCHREIBER HERE AND THERE

Mrs. A. LeBlanc and Harry Shack were taken to Terrace Bay Hospital this week, while Harvey Carmichael, Michael Spadoni and Lorne Bourke are all in St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur.

Mrs. Earl McCouan is a patient in the General Hospital, Port Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Riviere of Manitouwadge spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. T. Bolan.

Miss Dorothy Arnot of Toronto visited her mother last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Almos spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Weaver.

Mrs. W. Kusnieryk gave a joint birthday party for daughter Karen and son Brent, inviting 33 children to share in the fun and games. Karen had a pink and green cake and Brent a blue and white, cut by each with due ceremony. The hostess was assisted by the Misses Marjorie Bolan, Barbara Chatterson and Florence Picor.

Mrs. H.P. Bourguignon has had to return to McKellar Hospital for further treatment.

Cliff Dimmery of Schreiber is gratified with the record made by a Black Labrador, bred by him and sold to a Montreal owner. The nine month old retriever "Black Beauty" won the junior stake in recent field trials in Montreal. Two others of the same litter, Cliff's Black Toby and Sadie, are now being prepared for entry in this year's field trials in Portage La Prairie and Saskatoon.

Mr. Dimmery, a locomotive engineer, is also a successful duck hunter, making his interest in this breed of dogs a natural.

The Busy Bees of St. John's Anglican Church will hold a bake sale Jan. 26th in the Church Hall. A novel feature will be free tea, coffee and cookies for shoppers choosing homemade products.

LION'S CLUB SPONSOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S WORK

Representatives of the Ontario Society for Crippled children met with the local Lion's Club at a dinner meeting in the Schreiber Hotel, when the latter decided to sponsor the society's work in the Schreiber - Rossport area. In Schreiber there are 15 children already in the care of the O.S.C.C.

The visiting representatives included Mrs. May Wallace and J. Sarney of Toronto, Miss Rose Frim, district nurse for the Society, and W.H. Marr, chairman of District 16, both of Fort William.

Following an outline of the duties which the club will undertake in connection with the work, Mr. Sarney invited questions, replying in detail to the many queries.

Early plans will be made to contact the two towns during the Easter campaign and it is hoped the public response will be generous.

KINETTES HOLD VICE-PRESIDENT'S NIGHT

Vice-president's night for the Kinettes, was held in Jackie Turner's home, with Lorraine Weaver in charge of the meeting.

Minutes and correspondence were read by Sally Wood and the treasurer's report given by Mary Speziale.

Joy Riley, property chairman, reported on hospital equipment maintained for public use and on care of the town ambulance.

Attendance tabs were presented to Joy Riley and Eva Gordon (900%), Jackie Turner (400%), Lorraine Weaver (200%) and Sally Wood (100%).

A donation was made to the Brandon Club for the convention this year in May.

It was decided to again sponsor a Fashion show, the date set for March 22nd, and unanimously agreed that admission will be by ticket only.

Glorie Miller added to the Birthday Box pennies and Jackie Turner won the draw prize.

The next meeting, on February 4, will have the Kinettes meet with the Kinsmen for dinner, and go on from there to Joy Riley's home for the business meeting and the club birthday party.

LIBRARY NEWS

Mrs. Walter Sheehan has been appointed to the public library board by the Separate School, and Bernard White by the High School for this year.

The Bookmobile will be in town on Jan. 24, and library members are urged to check their cards since a considerable number of books are overdue. This is not (Continued on Page 8)
