

SCHREIBER HERE AND THERE

The Schreiber High Home and School will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Feb. 18th in the school.

Clifford Riley of Port Arthur was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. Krause last week.

Trainman Ivan Johnson is recuperating in St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur, following an accident last week.

Miss Bea McBride, on holidays from the Bank of Montreal staff, has taken her nieces Sandra and Joan Richardson to visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. Freed in Brandon and Mr. and Mrs. D. McBride in Kenora.

Mesdames J. Stitt, W.R. Burroughs, H. Carmichael, A.W. Cuthbertson, E.J. McAdam, G. McParland, R. Stortini and W.G. Furlonger attended a meeting of the North Shore Registered Nurses Association in Terrace Bay on Feb. 6th.

Miss Jeanne McCuaig spent the weekend with her cousin Sherry Petty in Port Arthur.

The sum of $1100.00 has been raised by the artificial ice fund committee and continuance of public support is requested for this worthwhile project.

Miss Lois Warner of Carlisle, Ont. has been visiting Mrs. A.R. Parchem, who accompanied her guest home.

Miss Cynthia Bond of St. Joseph's Hospital staff spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. E. O'Connor.

Mrs. Ted Wilson has been in St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur this past week.

Mrs. R. MacCuaig has accepted a position with the CPR office staff.

Mrs. Douglas Reynolds is in the Terrace Bay Hospital.

Rev. R.A. Crook leaves over the weekend to attend a conference in United College, Winnipeg. Mrs. Crook accompanied him.

Donations to the Memorial Organ Fund in St. John's Anglican Church may be given to Mrs. W.E. Collinson.

Bill Moon suffered a painful facial injury during a house-league game this week. The injury was entirely accidental. Rules of non-violent competition are enforced in the series. The teams enroll both retired experienced players and tyros with little or no hockey 'savvy' or skating ability. These factors add up to astonishing plays fully appreciated by the fans. For the players the series is actually an entertaining means of keeping, or getting back, physical fitness.
