

SCHREIBER HERE AND THERE

Roly Gander went to the Lakehead over the weekend for medical advice.

W.C. Baynes of London has succeeded R.T. Campbell as night chief despatcher on this division.

John Freed of Edmonton visited with Mrs. G. McBride while enroute to New Brunswick.

A White Elephant sale was planned by the Cancer Polio and TB committee at their regular meeting. May 24th was the date set for the event, with all donations accepted, and details of collection points to be announced later. Rebekahs and members of I.O.O.F. are urged to begin their 'give-away' boxes now.

Mrs. Frank Fummerton is in McKellar Hospital.

Twenty-two delegates from the Schreiber Catholic Youth Organization represented this diocese in the C.Y.O. North Western Ontario Rally held in Chapleau on Feb. 16 and 17th. Mr. Art LeBlanc accompanied the group, who were billeted in private homes for the occasion. The program combined both Spiritual and social activities with special plans for outdoor sports and was attended by a large delegation from Timmins.

Mrs. J.D. Bryson will preside for those of Mrs. J. Smitheman's Studio, writing their grade I and II Theory examinations on Feb. 16th.

Miss Judy Olson, of Sudbury is now with the Spadoni Garage office staff.

A diverting sight this winter for passersby is the model windmill in J. St.Pierre's yard, its arms revolving merrily in the winds. The model, built to scale from an authentic Dutch windmill, is 8 feet high, of cement construction with arms of slender iron rods. It is useful as well as ornamental, the interior serving as storage space for garden tools.

Ten companions ably helped Debra Joliceur celebrate her 9 birthday on February 10, with sister Lynn assisting the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner of Cromer, Man. are spending the rest of the winter with Rev. and Mrs. R.A. Crook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Yates and daughter Cathy of Brandon are visiting with the J. Morris and R. Yates families.

Miss Sally Stewart is employed with the central YMCA in Ottawa as a secretary. Sally's interest in the local Cubs, Brownies and Catholic Youth Organization was an important factor in the requirements for her new position.

President Boyd Drake and fourteen others of the local Hi C's were in Fort William over the weekend attending a rally in First Church United. Some of the Schreiber group travelled by train and others were driven up by Vic Costa, with Rev. Crook to bring them home. All were billeted in private homes for the visit.

Miss Mary Huard, who has gone to a new position in Niagara Falls, was honored at a party arranged in the home of Mrs. G. Burns by a group of 22 friends. A merry evening was spent in games and contests and Mrs. Burns presented a farewell gift of luggage to Miss Huard. Mrs. R. Fournier, Mrs. G. Drake and Mrs. M. Smilsky assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

Cpl. and Mrs. W.G. Furlonger and children of Winnipegosis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Furlonger, visiting also the Del Weberg family.

Mrs. Martin Paul of Fort William visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wright were in Fort William last week to attend the dinner and dance when Alex Tweedy received his 15 year service pin from Chapples.

Lori Drake marked her 4th birthday on Feb. 15th with a party at which her sister Lynn and brother Billy arranged games. At the party were Deb. Fadden, Barbara and Carol Huard, Bob Smilsky, Donna Desmoulins, Janice Paradis, Darlene Parent, Lorene Kusik, Cathy and Brady Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Wood have returned from Oakville, Man., where they attended the funeral of Mr. Wood's mother.

Mrs. F.W. Hiller, Mrs. O. Niemi, and Mrs. R.G. Macadam were in Fort William Feb. 13th to attend a Presbytery meeting in Wesley United Church.

R.V. Weldon of the C.A.S. Port Arthur, was here this week consulting with Miss Muriel Atcheson, local CAS worker.

Peter Doig, Jerry Thrower, Ray Niemi and Wally Richardson have gone to enter the Dryden bonspiel.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Sparkes were honored on the occasion of their 25 wedding anniversary, Feb. 12th, by a group of friends and relations who came to their home with gifts and good wishes. The relations included Mr. and Mrs. D. Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ilijow, and gifts were also sent by Mr. and Mrs. S. Ilijow, Nipigon and Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on Page 8)

COMMUNITY PANCAKE SUPPER

FAMILY TICKETS $1.50
regardless of number of children -
SINGLE ADULT .75 C
STUDENTS .50 C
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL CHILDREN .30 C

PANCAKES -
SAUSAGE - SYRUP -
TEA - COFFEE
MILK

cooked by men of the Church

Community Church Hall - Feb. 26TH
4:30 PM. - 5:15 PM. - 6:30 PM (SHROVE TUESDAY)

EVERYONE INVITED

SPONSORED BY THE CUMMINITY CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL - TERRACE BAY

FREE BABY SITTING SERVICE
AT THE CHURCH. CALL 3346
OR W. KURYLO FOR SERVICE.

