J. Molinski, Vancouver. On behalf of those attending the party Mr. and Mrs. M. Smilsky presented a purse of money.

Tulips and pussy-willows adorned the Tea Table at the United Church Women's Auxiliary Tea and Bake Sale held last Saturday afternoon.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. R.G. Macadam and Mesdames W. Harris, M. McCouan, O. Niemi and N. Smith presided at the Tea Table.

Servitors were Mesdames W. Gerow, B. Simon, J. Richardson, S. Petrushack, W.J. Cringle, D. Nesbitt and V. Weaver and Replenishers were Mesdames H. McCanna and L. Christie. Con-venor of the affair was Mrs. A. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Whitton will be at home to their friends on February 28th on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

BROWNIES RECEIVE GOLDEN BARS

The Golden Bar ceremony was observed at the regular Brownie meeting in the Guild Hall, with Kathie LeBlanc, Kathie Stokes, Lynn Joliceur, Brenda Lalonde, Jane Bailey, Neldine West and Caroline Glad the honored girls.

Sixer stripes were presented to Brenda Lalonde, Carolyn Glad and Jane Bailey, second stripes to Neldine West and Kathy Stokes.

Mrs. R. Campbell, Brown Owl, was assisted by Mrs. D. Stewart and Mrs. H. Shack, Tawney Owls.

Following the ceremony, parents who were guests at the meeting, inspected the display of tests which must be passed by the girls at various stages.

W.I. HONORS "NEW YEAR" BABY

Mrs. N. Smith presided for the February meeting of the Women's Institute with members answering the roll with gifts for the New Year baby.

Minutes and correspondence were read by Mrs. W. Thrower and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. F. Harness.

A poem, composed by her father, W.J. Scott, was read in memory of the late Mrs. Dalton Slater a long-time devoted member of the W.I.

Mrs. A. Slater read a paper on Citizenship and Education prepared by Mrs. W. Clemens.

Mrs. W. Miller presented the annual card report and dues were paid for the year.

Following the meeting Mrs. S. St.Pierre and her daughter Susanne were welcomed and presented with beautiful gifts from business firms in town and other friends, by Mrs. N. Smith.

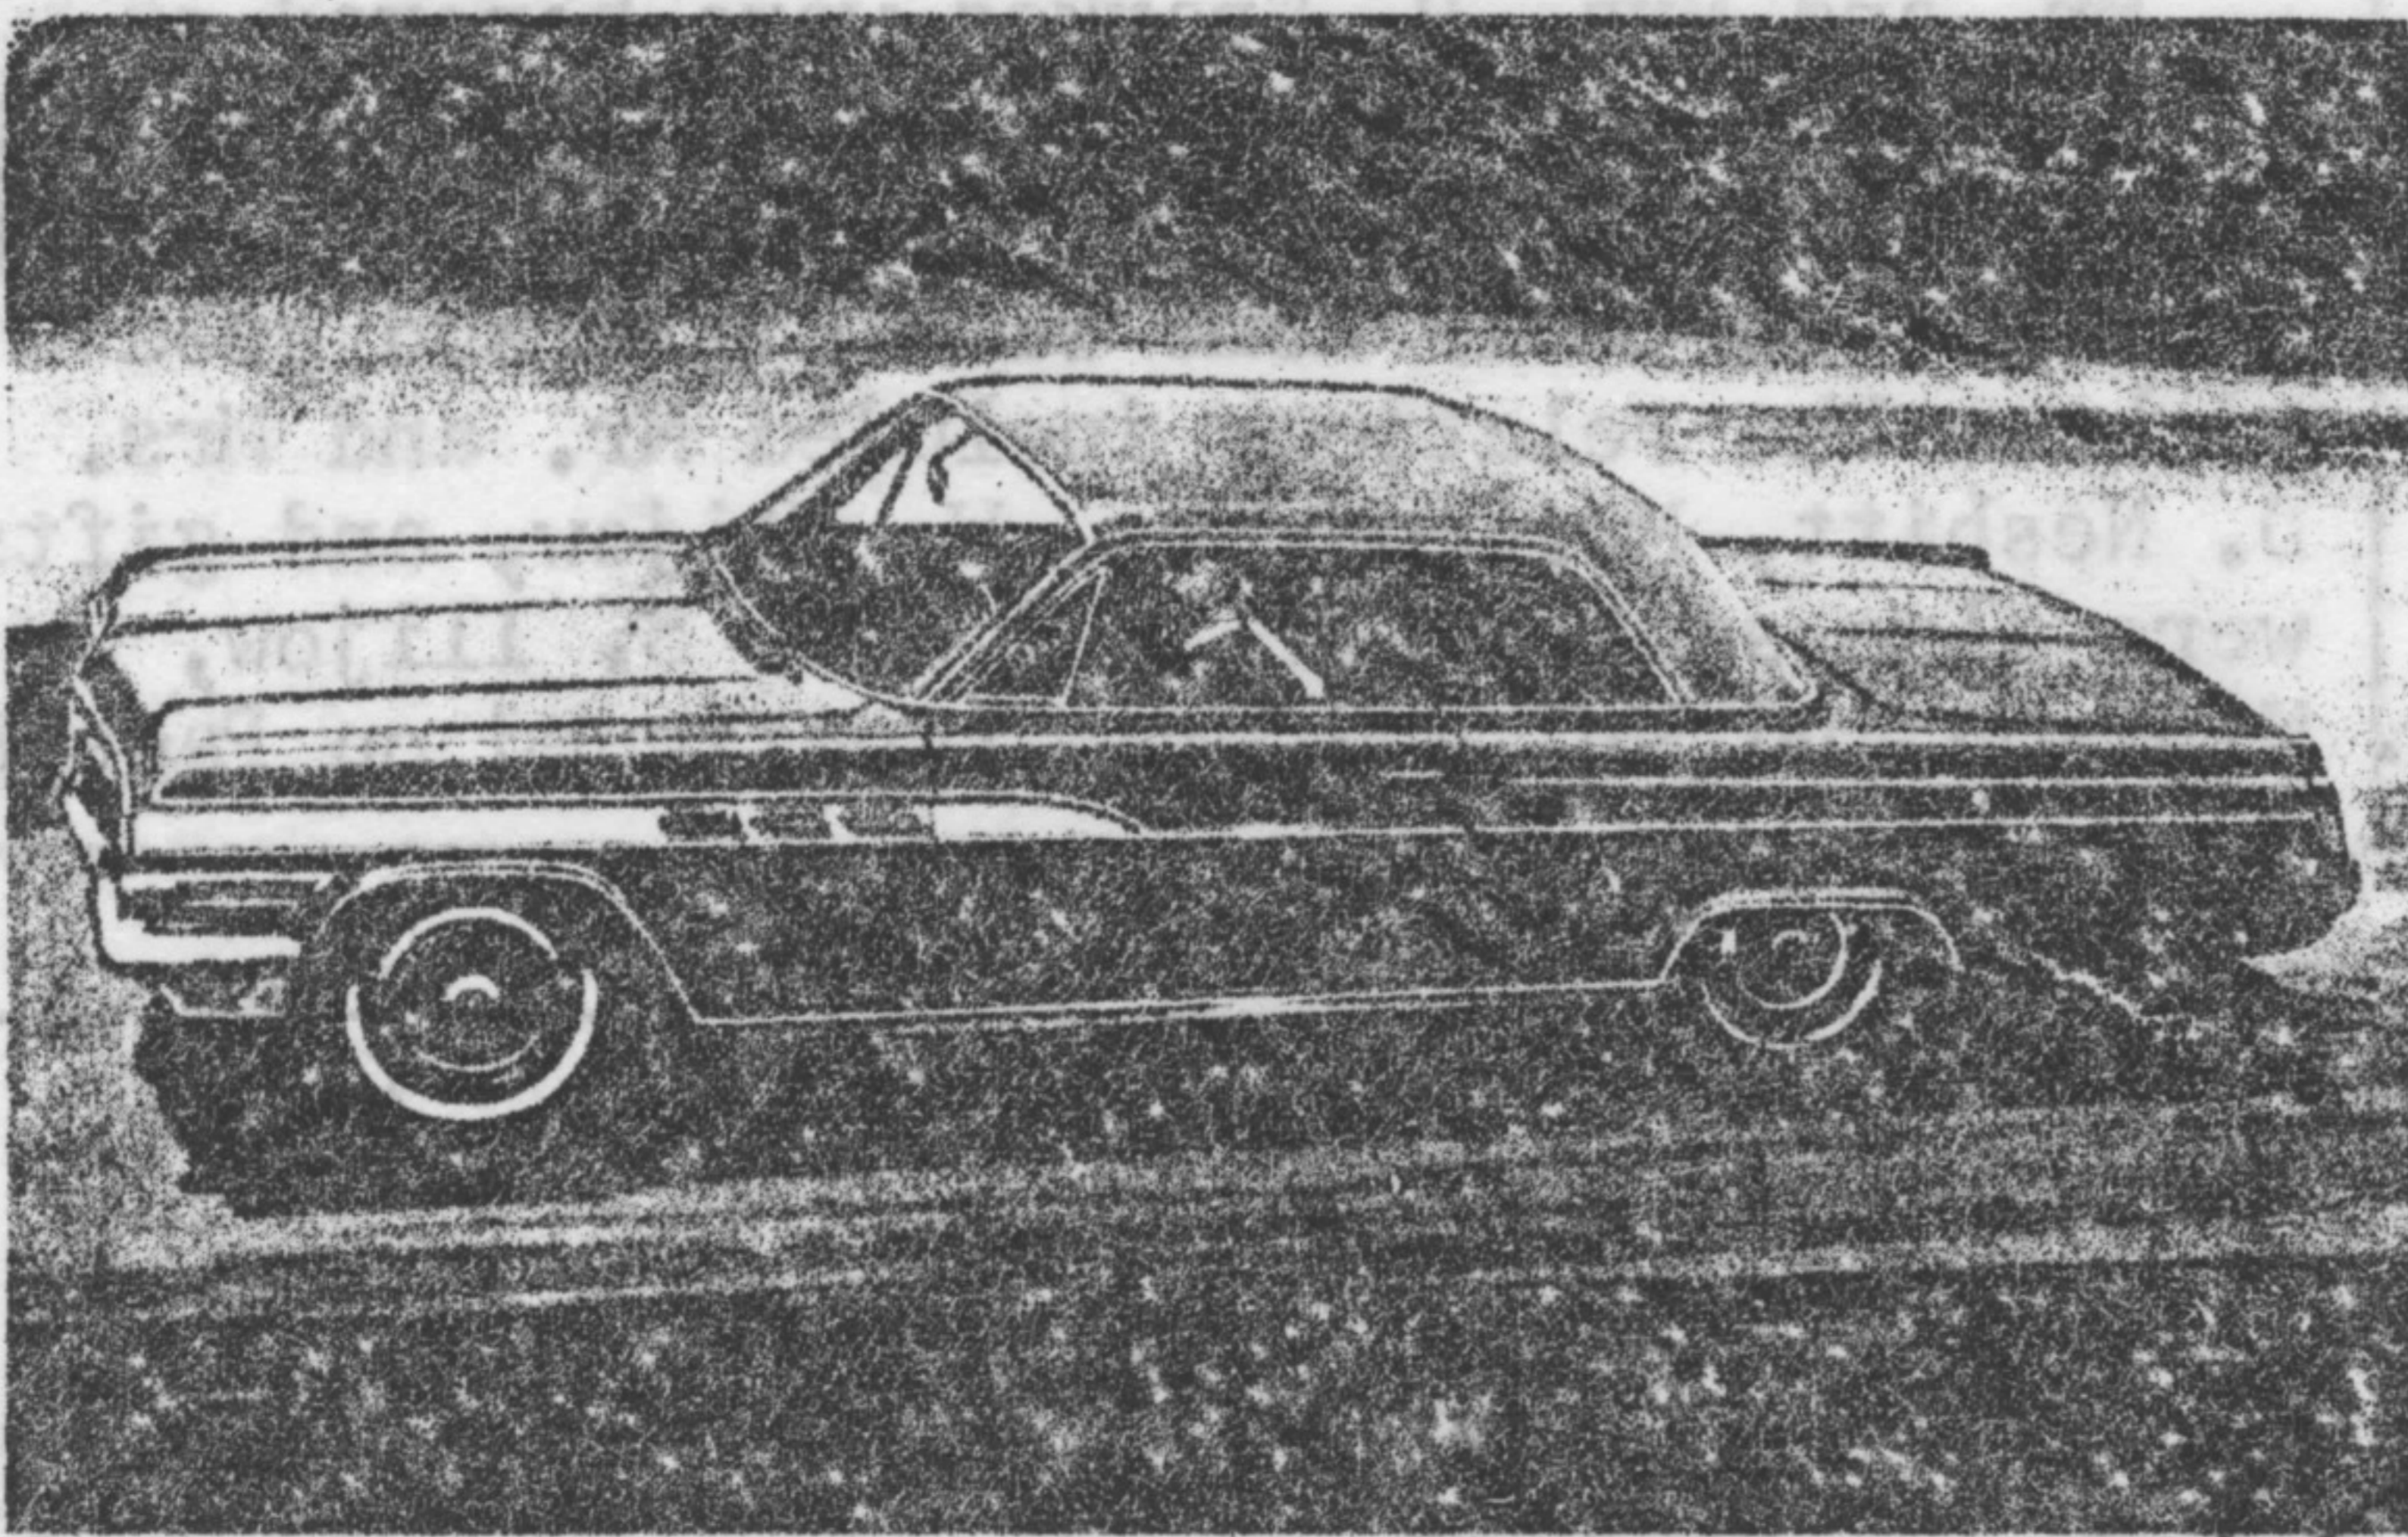

Reeve W.E. D'Arcy attended and presented the silver engraved cup from the Municipal Council, congratulating Mrs. St.Pierre and warmly commending the W.I. for the part they take in community welfare most of which is unknown to the general public.

Mrs. R. Macadam read a humorous article, with a vein of seriousness, on family life and the part played by each member.

The tea table was decorated in the Valen-tine motif centred with a special cake made by Mrs. G. Krause and cut by Mrs. St. Pierre, when she thanked Mesdames C. Campbell, T. Bolan, T. Whitton and N. Smith, in particular, and the members for the many gifts.

Lunch committee were Mesdames E. O'Connor, T. Bolan, J. Campbell, R. Winters and P. LeBlanc.
