

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL (Cont'd from Page 2)

All Terrace Bay thrilled Friday noon to watch one of its native sons as eleven yr. old Ronald Matuszak, appeared as guest pianist on the TV Show, Meridian. For this, his second TV appearance, Ronald played Poet and Peasant Overture by Franz Von Suppe.

Ronald was accompanied to Port Arthur by his Mother, Mrs. Matuszak, sister Denise and brother David, while a proud Father watched from his bed in the Terrace Bay Private Hospital. Listening to Ronald no one could help but forecast a very bright future for this talented and keen young musician.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Langevin, now of Nipigon, were guests last week with his sister and brother-in-law, Rita and Al Zieleman as they were enroute to Alpena, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Langevin were married the previous Saturday in St. Agnes Church, Fort William.

With variety the spice of life, students and teachers alike welcomed ten new faces to the Terrace Bay Public School last week in the persons of student teachers from the Lakehead Teachers College. Those on the mid-winter training session were: Miss Nadine MacGregor, Mrs. Trush of Fort William, Miss Patricia Harvey, Mrs. Widdifield, Mr. Karjalainen and Mr. Ernest Melville of Port Arthur, Miss Lorraine Wasik of Dryden, Miss Diane MacKay of Kenora and two local girls, Miss Pamela Husser and Miss Maryellen Reynolds. The next group from the Lakehead Teachers College will visit Terrace Bay immediately following Easter vacation.

MARCHING MOTHERS RAISE $504.50

The March of Dimes Campaign has now been completed, and it is a great pleasure to announce that total receipts collected in Terrace Bay were 504.50, an appreciable increase over previous years.

Rehabilitating the handicapped is a tremendous financial undertaking and it is gratifying to know that we in Terrace Bay share the importance of this work through our donations.

Much credit is due to Mrs. J. Calder, one of our Marching Mothers, for her enthusiastic effort in making this campaign a great

MINOR HOCKEY NEWS (BY ERNIE KETTLE)

On Saturday afternoon the Fort William Canadian Midgets visited the Terrace Bay Arena and handed the locals their first loss of the season in an exhibition game 6 - 5.
